RV'ers enjoy sunshine, ocean breezes, and a scenic panorama from Malibu to Catalina Island. There's plenty to do and lots to enjoy at Dockweiler RV Park.

For starters, this popular, year-round beach campsite offers complete hook-ups, a handy pump-out station, hot showers, and a laundromat. Each campsite has its own picnic table and grill, so you can enjoy your stay.

And, of course, there's the ocean only a few steps from your RV door. You can play volleyball at nearby courts, take a walk on the sand, or even have a romantic fire on the beach. It's all here. This is a great beach for swimming. If you've never tried surf fishing, this is your chance.

The 22-mile Marvin Braude Bicycle Trail is only a few pedals away from the camp, connecting the RV Park with nearby attractions such as Redondo Beach Pier, Venice Beach, Santa Monica Beach and Marina del Rey.

The RV Park is freeway-close to some of Southern California's many attractions, such as Disneyland, Universal Studios, and the Getty Museum, just to name a few.
