MEETING LOCATION

Burton W. Chace Park Community Room

1. CALL TO ORDER AND PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

Commissioner Powell called the meeting to order at 9:41 a.m. He requested that Commissioner Scott Sachs lead everyone in the Pledge of Allegiance. Commissioners, staff and guests rose and delivered the pledge.

2. APPROVAL OF MINUTES

Commissioner Powell motioned for approval of the April 22, 2015 meeting minutes. The Commissioners called for no changes and unanimously approved the minutes.

Motion to approve made by Commissioner Powell. Commissioner Dagit seconded. Minutes unanimously approved by the Commissioners.

3. OLD BUSINESS

NONE

4. NEW BUSINESS

A. Marine Animal Rescue

Peter Wallerstein and Dean Gomersall made a presentation on Marine Animal Rescue complete with anecdotes, statistics and photographic displays. Experts are needed to assess and transport injured and sick sea lions. Amateurs attempting to pick up and carry them have been bit on the face and arms. The San Pedro rehab center restricts its capacity. Opening a local rehab center in Los Angeles County, preferably at Dockweiler State Beach, would be tremendous. Animals that currently can't be placed have to stay in the rescue truck, or be relocated to more distant rehab centers. Animal rehabilitation takes three months on average. Some sea lions have been affected by human beings using gill nets. The increasing warmth of coastal waters is forcing mother sea lions to search farther and farther out for food, forcing them to leave behind their young, who get lost and stranded. All animals leaving current rehab centers are tagged. "Re-strands" are rare. There is no practical or cost effective way to spay or neuter sea lions. The bulk of the sea lion population resides on the outer Channel Islands. Animals on these islands will continue to breed regardless of any spaying of rescued animals. Sea lions are a federally listed species that is rebounding. The funding goal for a new Los Angeles County located marine animal rescue center is $2.5 million. Between grants, contacts within the entertainment industry and concerts at the Santa Monica Civic Center Auditorium, Mr. Wallerstein has been raising funds on his own. There are 125 to 150 maximum average of sea lion strandings per year. Cost per rescued and rehabilitated sea lion averages $350 to $400 and includes food and veterinary care. There is a public safety component to this issue.

5. STAFF REPORTS

A. ONGOING ACTIVITIES REPORT

Carol Baker presented the written report on Gary Jones' behalf.

B. BEACH AND MARINA DEL REY SPECIAL EVENTS

Carol Baker presented the written report.

C. FACILITIES AND PROPERTY MAINTENANCE DIVISION REPORT

Ken Foreman presented the written report and invited questions. Torrance restroom rehabilitation is expected to be completed by the end of June 2015.

D. CAPITAL PROJECTS STATUS REPORT/RELATED ACTIVITIES

John Kelly presented the report. All restrooms and showers are equipped with low flow heads, low flush toilets, waterless urinals, and automatic shut-offs. Vandalism is a problem. DBH staff have been admonished to do daily visual inspections for water leaks. At Zuma and Surfrider beaches, tertiary treated water is being leached into fenced-in leach fields. Projects are under consideration to recycle this water for restroom flushing which would further reduce potable water use.

E. LIFEGUARD REPORT

Chief Moseley delivered a verbal report, remarking in part that June gloom had just ended, summer is now in full swing, and that the new red lifeguard vehicles will soon be in use.

6. COMMISSIONER COMMENTS

Vice Chair, Commissioner Rosi Dagit introduced Andre Sanchez of AmeriCorps. Rosi and Andre spoke about the mission of AmeriCorps and invited questions.

Next Beach Commission Meeting scheduled for September 23, 2015.

ADJOURNMENT

Commissioner Powell adjourned the meeting at 11:25 a.m.

Respectfully Submitted,

From: Gary Jones, Director
Subject: ITEM 4A - BEACH NEEDS ASSESSMENT 2015

In both 1992 and 1996, Los Angeles County voters approved a "Safe Neighborhood Parks Proposition," commonly known individually as "Proposition A," both of which provided a combined $859 million for park and open space acquisition, development, improvement, restoration, rehabilitation, protection and maintenance. In the 1992 Proposition A, the term "beaches" was specifically included, whereas in the 1996 version, it wasn't. Nevertheless, the Department of Beaches and Harbors (Department) received funding from both propositions, $30 million from the 1992 Proposition A and $8 million from the 1996 Proposition A for capital projects on beaches the County owned or operated.

Recognizing both the success of the Propositions A and the expiration of those assessments, the Board of Supervisors (Board) placed Proposition P on the November 5, 2014 ballot, seeking to reset an assessment to continue a revenue stream similar to that of the prior Propositions A. Unfortunately, Proposition P failed to include the term "beaches" and, moreover, did not include a specific line item to provide funding directly to our Department. This is especially concerning as all of our Propositions A money has been fully expended, and we have no present annual allocation to our operating budget for capital project purposes.

Proposition P was not approved by the voters, felt, in part, to be due to the absence of a detailed analysis that described the needs the revenue would address. The Board, therefore, has provided a budget to the Department of Parks and Recreation (DPR) to produce a Countywide Comprehensive Parks and Recreation Needs Assessment, which will be developed through community outreach activities and a Countywide analysis of current public parks, open space, and cultural and recreational assets and needs, including all 88 cities, State and local agencies, and non-profit organizations. In addition, the Board has instructed DPR to work with other County Departments to research and analyze potential funding mechanisms for future park projects.

Again, County beaches have not been included in the needs assessment being undertaken by DPR or specifically identified in any of the Board actions. Accordingly, I have authorized an expenditure of Department dollars from our operating budget to undertake a needs assessment for beach facilities. We have a significant amount of deferred maintenance and of capital projects required related to beach infrastructure and facilities that must be addressed. Gruen Associates, one of our urban planning and design consultants, will catalog and cost estimate the deferred maintenance and unfunded beach projects. In addition, Keyser Marston Associates Inc., one of our economic consultants, will study and quantify the overall financial benefits that the County owned, controlled or managed beaches provide to the County's economy.

It is expected our beach needs assessment will be completed in March 2016. Once received, not only will we be providing it to DPR, but also to each Board Office. We intend, as well, to provide a specific briefing to our Beach Deputies about the needs assessment. Finally, we intend to use the assessment to ensure that our inventory of beach projects is included in any future funding measure that may be initiated by the County.
