

Business Honoree

Lindy Huang Werges

Founder and Principal Integritas Resources, Inc.

Lindy Huang Werges is a high-performing executive, entrepreneur, philanthropist, and advocate for diversity, women’s initiatives and gender equity and parity. She is a master connector of people + community, which have resulted in countless collaborations, partnerships, and friendships.

Ms. Werges possesses over 25 years of executive search and corporate finance and accounting experience. She began her career with global, publicly-traded corporations before entering the start-up world in 2005. After successfully leading two start-ups, she launched Integritas Resources, Inc. in 2014, an award-winning full-service executive search and talent acquisition firm. In 2016, Ms. Werges co-founded Zen Yoga Strap, Inc., an ecommerce yoga strap company.

Ms. Werges is actively involved in numerous organizations, including serving as Board Chair for Fulfillment Fund’s Scholar Bridge Board, a 40+ year nonprofit providing college access to economically disadvantaged teens. She is also the Senior Vice-Chair for the SoCal Forum Leadership for Women’s Business Enterprise Council-West and a Founding Advisor for TuesdayNights, a professional women’s networking group for entrepreneurial women coupled with social impact. Ms. Werges serves as a mentor for Women’s Accelerator, a supporter of Mount Saint Mary’s University’s Center for the Advancement of Women and a champion / partner of Take the Lead Women’s Inaugural 50 Women Can Make a Difference in Media and Entertainment Cohort.

Ms. Werges attributes her career and company successes to her “pay it forward” mentality. She believes communities thrive because of a symbiotic relationship between its people and its communities, and the best way to stimulate our economy is by connecting its people in supporting its local, diverse businesses.

