Donald Rich, the applicant's attorney, reported that the applicant, who was present, had no arrests or contacts with law enforcement in the 90-day period and that she works Friday through Sunday.

Joseph Dangerfield, TTC, reported that there were no arrests or complaints on record against the applicant for this period.

MATTERS NOT ON POSTED AGENDA (TO BE PRESENTED AND PLACED ON THE AGENDA FOR ACTION AT A FUTURE MEETING): Vice President Campbell reported that she received correspondence concerning the county's Commercial Sex Venue (CSV) Ordinance. President Afriat indicated that he has a conflict of interest on this matter and would recuse himself from the discussion.

(President Afriat was excused from the meeting).

Vice President Campbell explained that a letter from Public Health requested the Commission's comments on this matter by October 28, 2004. She then requested Commission staff to send several documents to Commissioners related to this issue, including the San Diego County bathhouse ordinance, the L.A. County CSV ordinance and the letter she received from Public Health.

The Commission scheduled a discussion on this matter for its October 20, 2004 meeting and requested Commission staff to invite various county department representatives. Ressie Roman, Fifth District Health Deputy, noted she would provide the contact information for these county representatives.

ADJOURNMENT: The Commission adjourned at 9:30 a.m.
