Absentee Excuses

Roll was taken and on a motion by Commissioner Warschaw, seconded by Commissioner Haagen, the excused absences for the meeting of December 7, 2009 were unanimously approved.

Approval of Minutes

On a motion by Commissioner Haagen, seconded by Commissioner Warschaw, the minutes for the meeting of October 5, 2009 were approved with a correction to include President Ruano under Commissioner Items as attending ¡Bienvenido Gustavo! concert at the Hollywood Bowl on October 3, 2009 and include Commissioner Ruano commended Supervisor Molina and the Latino Welcome Committee that organized October 2 Welcome Reception for Gustavo Dudamel. The motion carried. Abstain: Commissioner Clausen-Odenthal.

Correspondence

Commissioner Blanning circulated copies of ten thank you letters that have been received by the Board of Supervisors and the Arts Commission from FY 2009/2010 OGP grant award recipients.

Commissioner Blanning also circulated copies of letters by Supervisors Antonovich and Ridley-Thomas to Burbank Unified and Culver City respectively, acknowledging their commitment to Arts for All.

President's Items
Emiko Ono, Director of Grants and Professional Development, gave an overview of the options for site visits for the January-March meetings.

Following discussion, a motion was made by Commission Brooks, seconded by Commissioner Warschaw, and unanimously approved to schedule at least one site visit meeting in the winter schedule and invite at least six organizations to make presentations to the Commission.

Commissioner Rosen reported the Grantee Reception was held on October 12, 2009 at the Hall of Administration in Room 140 and was attended by 270 guests. Commissioner Rosen served as master of ceremonies and added that Supervisors Ridley-Thomas, Yaroslavsky, Knabe, and Antonovich spoke at the event. Additionally, Leslie E. Stark, Vice President of Local Public Affairs for Southern California Edison who sponsored the reception, made the opening remarks.

Approval of 2010 Panel Pools for OGP and Civic Art
Commissioners reviewed the pool of prospective panelists for the Organizational Grant and Civic Art programs.

A motion was made by Commission Clausen-Odenthal, seconded by Commissioner Rosen, to approve the OGP and Civic Art panel pools as presented (attached), include the amended list of prospective panelists (attached), include artist Clif Garten to the Civic Art panel list, authorize staff to make any necessary changes as may be required, establish a tracking system for panelist participation, and strive not to use out of town panelists unless needed. The motion carried. Ayes: Commissioners Clausen-Odenthal, Rosen, Beasley, Blanning, Brooks, Haagen, Lyte, Ruano, and Warschaw. Abstain: Commissioner Benitez

Executive Director's Report
Adam Davis, Managing Director of Productions, gave a brief update on the 50th Annual Los Angeles County Holiday Celebration. The theme for the show is Now It's Your Turn and will include several audience participation opportunities including dance, caroling, audience sing-a-long, and art making activities. For the first time, the show will be streamed live on the web at KCET.org for audiences to tune in live around the world.

Ms. Zucker also gave a budget update and reported the County Chief Executive Officer Bill T Fujioka has asked all departments to prepare a 9% curtailment exercise for the 2010/11 fiscal year. The Arts Internship Program remains unfunded although there is a board motion instructing the CEO to identify funding for the program.

2009 Ford Season Report
Adam Davis, Managing Director of Productions, gave an overview of the 2009 season. The report included programming highlights, ticket sales and incentives, marketing and communications, facility and maintenance projects, and funding. Mr. Davis disseminated a list of social media links as requested.

Arts for All Update
Ayanna Hudson, Director of Arts Education, presented the second update on the goals of Arts for All, Los Angeles County Regional Blueprint for Arts Education. Ms. Hudson covered Goal 3 of the Blueprint in detail.

Commissioner Items
Commissioner Warschaw invited Commissioners and staff to attend a performance of the Harvard Westlake Choir at the First Presbyterian Church in Santa Monica on Saturday, December 12, 2009.
