Item No. 10 through 13 are City Agreements with the City and Community Development Commission to provide personnel, office space, supplies and equipment to effectively operate the Merged Redevelopment Project, Santa Fe Redevelopment Project, Neighborhood Project and Low and Moderate Income Housing Funds. Ms. Padilla stated that a copy of these agreements will be provided to the Members in the next meeting.

Item No. 14 Pass Through Agreement which are deferred with the Los Angeles County. Member Buendia questioned if this item is under obligation. Ms. Padilla confirmed that it is.

Item No. 15, Malabar Project Affordable Housing Agreement under the ROPS represent cost to pay for permanent relocation benefits required under the Federal and State Relocation requirements. Fernanda Palacios, Project Manager, City of Huntington Park, addressed the Oversight Member to clarify Item No. 15. The project is completed and it is only paying the relocation payments to the tenants, which has an outstanding obligation of $50,000. Member Buendia question if the project is Low and Moderate Assistant Housing. Ms. Palacios confirmed that it is.

Item No. 16, Middleton Project Amended Affordable Housing Agreement, which is also funded by Low and Moderate Housing.

Vice Chair Cervera requests copies of the approving documents and the conforming agreements to ensure the dates are certain regarding to the two cut off lines for Item Nos. 15 and 16.

Item Nos. 17 and 18, is a parcel bought from Bond proceeds to develop the parcel into dwelling units but since August 2011 when the Redevelopment Dissolution Agency was informed of being dissolved and cannot entered into new agreements because of the situation. Vice Chair Cervera posed the question when the parcel was purchased. Ms. Palacios informed Vice Chair Cervera that the parcel was purchased on April 2010. Vice Chair requested to see documentation of this item.

Item No. 19, Employee costs, are salaries and wages of employees working with projects related to Community Development Commission. Charges only allowed up to January before dissolving of the Redevelopment Agency.

Item No. 20, Richards Watson & Gershon Agreement, provides legal counsel services to the Successor Agency. Item No. 24, Eco & Associates Agreement, to serve as its peer-review consultant and assist the Community Development Commission in preparing all the plans required by Department of Toxic Substance Control. The Successor Agency will provide a copy of the agreement to the Oversight Member.

Item No. 25, Karen Warner and Associates Agreement, to develop an affordable housing strategy report. The report was completed in December 2011. No additional payments are required. Vice Chair Cervera questioned if this item should be removed since the Oversight Member does not need to consider it. Ms. Palacios confirmed that yes, it will be removed.

Item Nos. 26, agreement with HDL, they provide property tax services and this item can be part of the Administrative Cost. Member Buendia questioned on the issue about the administrative cost is that subject to the Cap of 5% of the property taxes for 2011 and wanted to know what is included or not to ensure it is based within the cap. Ms. Padilla further indicated that Item No. 27, ships and Meetings and Item No. 29, Agency Supplies will be considered within the Administrative Costs.

Item No. 28, Audit Services for year ending June 30, audit is completed. Vice Chair questioned it this Item would be considered an Administrative Cost as well for Item No. 29 and wants to ensure that they be confirmed to comply with the 5% maximum. Ms. Padilla indicates that Item No. 28 is an Audit. However Item No. 29 is an Administrative Cost. Vice Chair Cervera suggested that the items that are Administrative Costs be compiled together within the new ROPS. Ms. Palacios indicated that the 5% will be reflected in the Administrative Budget.
Mr. Wong, addressed the Oversight Member and suggested if it would be helpful if staff will return at the next meeting and have the Administrative Cost identify with subcategories and similarly with project delivery costs and with subcategories with different projects. Chair Guerrero agreed with the suggestion and suggested to staff to have the narratives coincide with the ROPS.

Member Buendia requested information on what the 5% threshold is. Mr. Wong advised Member Buendia that the funds which includes the 5% have been received.

On motion of Member Fontanez, seconded by Member Adame, the ROPS for the period of January 2012 through June 2012 were continued to May 3, 2012 for further review with requested supporting documentation from the City.
