Establish the Reward Offer in the Murder of Alexis Alvarado-Garcia

On Thursday, July 24, 2014, at approximately 6:43 p.m., 18-year-old Alexis Alvarado-Garcia was shot and killed on the 10930 block of Long Beach Boulevard in the city of Lynwood. Mr. Alvarado-Garcia was at a strip mall when he was approached by an unknown assailant and subsequently shot with a handgun.

A bystander witnessed the altercation and attempted to follow the suspect. The suspect ran east on Norton Avenue prior to departing in a waiting vehicle, described as a light colored 4-door Toyota Camry, in which at least two additional males were seen. The occupants of the suspect's vehicle shot at the witness, striking his vehicle.

Mr. Alvarado-Garcia was transported to Saint Francis Medical Center in the city of Lynwood, where he succumbed due to his injuries.

The Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department's (LASD) detectives believe there are witnesses in the neighborhood that may have seen the suspects leave the area or know their identities. Any individuals with information about this senseless crime are urged to contact LASD's Homicide Bureau or Crime Stoppers.
