At its meeting held April 27, 2004, the Board took the following action:

Supervisor Yaroslavsky made the following statement:

“The Malibu Farmers Market entered its fifth season of operation by Cornucopia Farms, a nonprofit organization, this year. Cornucopia dedicates the proceeds from the Market to fund community projects such as teaching and demonstrating resource conservation as well as programs and opportunities for the Malibu community to participate in gardening, composting and sustainable agriculture. On Sundays the Market offers a variety of locally grown organic home-farmed fruits and vegetables.

“The Market is a valued community resource to the residents of Malibu and the surrounding County area, but is struggling to establish itself as a viable going concern. In its first year of operation, Cornucopia barely broke even. This year, as a result of ongoing operational concerns typical of startups, Cornucopia Farms continues to struggle, but is nonetheless committed to establishing a successful Market. In this regard, Cornucopia Farms is participating in a time-tested tradition of farmers markets throughout the County, many of which take years if not decades to establish breakeven, then profitable, operations. Because farmers markets are of such value to their communities, they are often supported by their local jurisdictions.

“The County charges a flat $175.00 per use permit fee for the use of the County’s parking lot at the Malibu Civic Center. Since the City of Malibu waives its fees, and since the Market is continuing to establish itself, the County should assist Cornucopia Farms to continue to operate within its still slim revenues. For the first four years of Cornucopia’s operation, the Board waived the permit fee in its entirety. At this point, Cornucopia is able to pay a portion of the fee.”

Therefore, on motion of Supervisor Yaroslavsky, seconded by Supervisor Knabe, unanimously carried (Supervisor Molina being absent), the Board authorized the following:

1. The Cornucopia Farms' use of the Malibu Civic Center parking lot for the weekly Sunday Farmers Market, and waived one-half of the $175.00 per use permit fee, excluding the cost of security and liability insurance, from the end of the period of the last Board-approved waiver through December 31, 2004, which marks the end of this season, at which time the imposition of a per-event flat or percentage fee will be reevaluated; and
2. The Chief Administrative Officer to reimburse any fees paid to date that have now been waived.
