

Re-establish the Reward Offer in the Murder of William Fifita

On March 20, 2016, at approximately 2:15 a.m., 21-year-old William Fifita was shot and killed at the intersection of Crenshaw Boulevard and Rosecrans Avenue in the City of Hawthorne after leaving a church dance with two college friends and a cousin. Mr. Fifita, who was driving the group, was stopped in the intersection when four or five suspects pulled up next to him in a white Kia Soul and began shooting into the car. The suspects then drove away and were last seen heading southbound on the 405 Freeway from Crenshaw Boulevard. Mr. Fifita and two of the three other occupants in the car were struck by the gunfire; tragically, Mr. Fifita passed away at the scene from his injuries.

William Fifita was a college student at Mt. San Antonio College, played football and was very involved in his church. He is survived by his father, William Fifita, who is a San Bernardino County Sheriff’s Deputy, and his mother, Melissa Fifita. His family is devastated by this senseless tragedy.

On May 30, 2017, the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors (Board) approved a reward offer in the amount of $10,000 in exchange for information leading to the apprehension and/or conviction of the person(s) responsible for the death of Mr. Fifita. The Board extended the reward offer on August 22, 2017; re-established it on September 24, 2019; and extended it on December 17, 2019 and June 9, 2020. This reward expired on December 16, 2020 and needs to be re-established. Los Angeles County Sheriff’s Department detectives investigating this case recommend that this reward be reestablished to help solve the crime and encourage members of the community to come
