Re-establish the Reward Offer in the Murder of Kejon (Wayne) Atkins

On July 23, 2015, at approximately 11:25 a.m., 22-year-old Kejon (Wayne) Atkins was walking along the 1800 block of east 126th Street, west of Wilmington Avenue, in the unincorporated area of Willowbrook. A gold or silver 4-door sedan, heading eastbound on 126th Street, crossed into the westbound lanes and stopped near the north sidewalk where Mr. Atkins was walking. From the left rear window of the sedan, an African American male was observed firing multiple gunshots toward Mr. Atkins, who was struck by the barrage of gunfire. Mr. Atkins was transported to Saint Francis Memorial Hospital in Lynwood where he was treated, but ultimately succumbed to his injuries on July 27, 2015, at approximately 2:22 p.m. The main suspect in this incident is described as an African American male in his late teens to early 20's, reportedly with several tattoos on his shirtless back. There were two or three other African American males of approximately the same age inside the vehicle. They were last seen driving southbound on Wilmington Avenue and then westbound on El Segundo Boulevard.

Surveillance cameras at the intersection of El Segundo Boulevard and Wilmington Avenue captured images of the suspects' vehicle as well as a possible follow vehicle, which is described as a two-tone, maroon/gray, sport utility vehicle, possibly a Pontiac Aztec.

Mr. Atkins was an aspiring college student and football player. He previously attended Long Beach City College (LBCC). Mr. Atkins was intending to re-enroll at LBCC to continue his education and football activities. The shock and senselessness of this tragedy has left his family devastated.
