June 14, 2022

Establish the Reward Offer in the Murder of Javier Carachure Menchaca and Juan Antonio Orozco

On November 14, 2021, at approximately 12:58 a.m., 19-year-old Javier Carachure Menchaca and 22-year-old Juan Antonio Orozco attended a street take-over racing event at the intersection of Pine Avenue and Bullis Road, in the city of Compton. They were accompanied by several hundred other spectators at the event and were seated in their personal vehicle parked adjacent to 1940 North Bullis Road. An unknown suspect walked up to the front passenger door of their vehicle and shot both victims at a very close range through the open vehicle window. Both victims succumbed to multiple gunshot wounds. Investigators subsequently collected video evidence from a nearby business confirming many participants attending this event. To date, no witnesses or suspect(s) have been identified to further this investigation.

Los Angeles County Sheriff’s Department (LASD) Homicide Investigators believe it would be appropriate to offer a reward in this case to stimulate communication, bring attention to the incident, and cause the community to come forward with information on this homicide that would lead to the identification of the suspect. Any individuals with
