			Adriana Quinones	Good morning, Board Of Supervisors, My name is Adriana Quinones, a resident and community advocate in Hacienda Heights. I oppose agenda item 12. Promoting Accountability and Community Safety Through Checks and Balances of the Los Angeles County Sheriff. We the voters of Los Angeles County have elected Sheriff Villanueva and like the current set up as it separates the duties and prevents possible corruption and other problems. The Board of Supervisors already have too much power. The Los Angeles County Civilian Oversight Commission is not effective as it does not represent us, the constituents. I have participated in some of the meetings and it was obvious to me that their main focus was a political game to oust the Sheriff. We should consider reforming law enforcement and our judicial system, and we should also not make excuses when people commit a crime, they should be held accountable.
			Alexandra D Martinez
			alexia cina
			Alma V Bernal	You guys want power over a person taht is elected by your constituents, that is ridiculous
			anabell laguna
			Annika B Klein	This is absolutely crucial and must be passed! It is outrageous that any department should have this kind of power (not to mention budget) and remain entirely unchecked.
			Brenda Ping	Sheriff is an elected position and LA County BOS has no legal or moral rights to control the sheriff position! Leave it alone!!
			Bridgette Webster	It is unconstitutional to allow the BOS to remove an elected official. I strongly oppose this.
			Carla Cuadros	I am in favor of the proposal to give the Board the authority to remove the Sheriff
			Carlos M Montes	Thank you Sup. Mitchell and Solis. I support this motion but ask you to make it stronger. We need strong oversight powers by the COC and OIG over the LASD. Also make the COS a permanent dept. of the LA County.
			Carrie Tokunaga	A sheriff that pledges one thing (eliminate police gangs) and then ignores his pledge, refuses to work with Oversight Committees and the Board of Supervisors is a huge problem.

To the Esteemed Board of Supervisors,
Thank you for your continued service in these challenging times.
The Los Angeles Regional Reentry Partnership is the largest county-wide network of nonprofit organizations, public agencies, and advocates that works to ensure that our justice-involved reentry system meets the needs of those we serve, both in terms of capacity and public policy. We represent stakeholders across the whole of Los Angeles County. We join with dozens of organizations serving and advocating for formerly and currently incarcerated people to voice our support for increasing civilian oversight of the LA County Sheriff and their staff.
Alongside more than 100 community and labor organizations, LARRP is urging you to pass Item 12 on Tuesday, July 12 and propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.
No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights, not inflict harm, and represent the public and the common good. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few. ?
For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. For more than 50 years, deputy gangs among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department have terrorized community members, especially in Black and brown communities.
Deputy gangs and other forms of deputy violence have persisted because one sheriff's administration after the next has failed to enact and enforce policies that provide meaningful and consistent discipline when deputies harass, abuse, and kill. This culture of violence has come from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.?
We need a charter that works for the people of Los Angeles County today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust.? We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.
Besides good governance, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.
Therefore, LARRP urges the Board of Supervisors (Board) to pass Item 12. The Board should refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.
If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to email me at troyvaughn@lareentry.org.

Sincerely,

Daniel Rhee	This item does not promote accountability or safety but instead, puts the BOS in charge of the Sheriff, ignoring the will of the voters. We voted for the Sheriff, and trust him to make decisions in the best interest of the people and to hear directly from us the people. NOT from the BOS. The BOS has enough power as is, and separation of powers is in the best interest of the people.
Deborah G Aschheim	I am pleased that a majority of the supervisors are supporting placing a measure on the November ballot to change the LA County charter to create a process for addressing Sheriff misconduct, which has been a problem with many previous LASD culminating in the disdain Sheriff Villanueva exhibits. I completely support this measure being placed on the ballot, but I feel strongly that it does not go far enough to address longstanding problems in the LASD including well documented deputy gangs, corruption within the department and excessive use of force. An earlier draft I read calling for this amendment provided for increased civilian oversight, which I do not see included in the current version. I work closely with families impacted by law enforcement violence. I have friends whose family members were killed when they called 911 for mental health crisis support, and instead of help were met with LASD violence. I have friends whose unarmed, nonthreatening relatives were shot in the back in what appear to be gang initiation homicides. These shooting were ruled "within policy," which is obscene to me—we need to have more input into the policy, if LASD considers shooting unarmed 19 year olds and people in crisis valid use of force. I was pleased when County created the Citizen Oversight Commission, but even with subpoena power, LASD ignores subpoenas. Please strengthen this measure to give us a real tool for reforming the out of control Sheriff's department beyond punishing what this measure offers. The corruption in LASD has been the subject of massive national attention including FBI. The culture of LASD is completely incompatible with who we are as a County, and frankly they are terrorizing our communities in East LA, and the unincorporated areas where they are law enforcement like Antelope Valley. This measure is a good start but it does not go far enough. Please give us real tools for reform. Thank you, Deborah Aschheim

Ezekiel Nishiyama	My name is Ezekiel Nishiyama, I am an youth advocate with the Anti-Recidivism Coalition. I'm writing in strong support for the motion to promote accountability and community safety through checks and balances of the Los Angeles county sheriff. The motion would provide Los Angeles the tools to hold the sheriff's department accountable when in violation of the law and build trust between our community and the sheriff's department. There has been a huge disconnect in the trust between the community and the sheriff. There has been numerous times where the board has called upon the sheriff to show up and he has refused. This motion would allow the county to focus on what public safety should look like when there is oversight measures in place necessary to protect the public. Most importantly, this motion would allow for a special election that allows the voters to decide what oversight and accountability should look like. Thank you.
Faraz Aqil	The current Sheriff is refusing to follow the directions of the Civilian Oversight Commission. Also nothing is being done about the Deputy Gang members issue throughout LA County. The sheriff would rather spend resources/time going after critics than keeping LA safe from rising crime (example: LA Times reporter Alene Tchekmedyan). The current Sheriff would rather have COVID kill of his officers than require them to be protected against the virus (the military would discharge you for not being vaccinated). I expect much better from the Sheriff of LA County (whose job is not just protecting the public's safety, but also their officers too [especially from Sheriff station gang activities]).

Unfortunately, this sheriff is not willing to work with the people nor with the Civilian Oversight Commission or the you as the board of supervisors, how do we know this will not happen with the future sheriff and that's why we need this charter amendment. As to having a recall as a solution, unfortunately a recall takes too long and money, money that can be used elsewhere within the community. This charter amendment is simply common sense and I encourage you to support this agenda and bring it to the ballot this November 2022 at our general election and allow the people you represent the opportunity to decide. Thank you.
Jaylene Rea	My name is jaylene rea I am a resident of district one and I will speaking on agenda 12. My 18 year old brother Paul Rea was killed by the East Los Angeles sheriffs on June 27th 2019 and im here to say that I support agenda item 12. We have demanded for years that sheriff Villanueva and his officers need to be held accountable! he has went against everything he has ever promised the people. Time after. Time we ask for accountability and transparency and get absolutely nothing. Besides the killing of my brother we have faced unwanted retaliation for fighting for Paul. I myself was arrested after releasing the name of the bandito prospect who wrongfully killed my brother. We need to overhaul a sheriff's department that has enabled deputy gangs for so long and is clearly rotten to its core. Deputy gangs are on the rise , and it's no surprise that we have a dramatic increase in deputy shootings and record level deaths in the jails. This is long overdue. We need to do something big to fully investigate deputy gangs once and for all. The charter amendment can be one important step forward. This is not just another story or more to the story this is our lives we now have to deal with because they took our loved one from us yet treat us like we took something from them. We will continue to fight for what is right

	When I moved to Los Angeles, I was warned over and over about the racist, neo-nazi gangs that have infiltrated Los Angeles sheriffs department. LASD is known nationwide as a Brutal department with little to no oversight. We see report after report documenting these horrific practices of targeting Black and Brown communities and individuals. You've heard from so many families impacted by this violence. No one, certainly not the sheriff, is above the law and this charter amendment is not radical in any way. It's simply offering common sense checks and balances. I strongly support this charter amendment as one step closer to having any accountability for the Los Angeles Sheriff Department.

Karen Klink	In this instance I am in favor. Sheriff Villanueva has not been held accountable. He has ignored subpoenas and all requests for cooperation. I am also an advocate volunteer with VPAN, VOA, Salvation Army and other veteran service organizations in our City. I have spent several years by installment in the L.A. County Jail during 40+ of my 62yrs. I strongly support "Promoting Accountability and Community Safety Through Checks and Balances of the Los Angeles County Sheriff." I believe this is a strong community backed step towards holding all deputies and the Sheriff accountable for their indiscriminate unchecked acts against citizens entrusted in their custody while housed in LACJ. It has long been forgotten ... most of the jailed inmates are still awaiting some form of adjudication and judgment for sentencing, yet most are dehumanized and degraded as guilty of whatever charges a person is arrested for. By holding the Commander, the Sheriff accountable, this will enable LINE ACCOUNTABILITY amongst the ranking Supervisors and Deputies ... sort of like 'quality assurance' for human right while in the care and custody of the Sheriff's facility. The Sheriff is a voted position entrusted by the People of the County of Los Angeles. Therefore, the Supervisors of the County of Los Angeles should be afforded a progressive supervisory role in holding the Sheriff and any rogue deputies accountable for their individual actions. Further, the Sheriff should NOT BE ALLOWED to disregard the Board of Supervisor's request, requirement or subpoena to appear without accountability for failing to appear before this supervisory tribunal. Supervisor Solis, Ma'am you once gave me a challenge coin and a L.A. County Pin at a VPAN event where we both spoke, along with my mentor and friend, Adam Castillo. Kent Mendoza	Hi my name is Kent Mendoza and I'm the Manager of Advocacy at the Anti-Recidivism Coalition. Thank you to the authors of this motion. Thank you for your boldness in doing the right thing to ensure we create the mechanisms that can truly hold a sheriff elected official accountable. It is important that the county not only places this charter amendment in the novemeber ballot but to continue to work on improving the way our leaders work in the name of public safety and the community that voted them in. This means being able to removed someone that is not living up to the expecations of their duties like Sheriff Villanueva. We can't continue to allow officials who run billion dollar departemtns get away from being help accountable or questioned for the way they fail and don't meet their job duties. I spent time in county jail when Lee Baca who is now a prison was in charged of the county. It seems like the county is alloweing things to get out of hand - since electing a new sheriff, we have seen more deaths insides the jails, more harrasment from the sheriff departmtnet, and no accountabiliyt whatsoever. No one should have the right to simply carry a badge running a billion dollar department and not be held accountable for thir actions. The lives of people in county jails matter, this means it matters who is responsible and leading the department. It has to be someone that lives up to the values and expectations of treating all people humanely and not terrorizing communities simply because they have tha power and badge to do so. We have to have competent leaders that will respect the BOS and any policy that they set forward. We cannot have a person that continues to push back to the BOS, doesn't allow for public input nor can engaged with the public. We need this charter amendment now and the BOS must support this as you have witness yourself the reckless behaviors from elected officials that you have no power over. You can change that here today and let democracy lead the change. Let the people decided this for you. Thank you.

	Enforcement should be free of any gang influence at all levels. I am anti-gang! I don't like gang members, either in law enforcement and or street gangs. LASD deputy "gangs" are only a symptom of a pervasive culture in LASD of lawlessness, secrecy, and brutality. And Villanueva is also a product of this deep-rooted culture. When placed in the context of the administrations that preceded him, Villanueva's hostility to oversight, transparency, and accountability, and his disinterest in stemming deputy violence and misconduct, including deputy gangs, is no outlier. The current administration is only the most recent illustration of the ways the county's oversight structures come up seriously short and are largely powerless when a sheriff refuses to cooperate voluntarily. The county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of LASD. What we need instead are structural changes that provide the civilian bodies with oversight responsibility over LASD — including the elected Board of Supervisors, the Sheriff Civilian Oversight Commission, and the Office of the Inspector General — with the authority to ensure LASD is transparent and accountable, complies with oversight authority and local, state, and federal laws, and is subject to meaningful checks and balances. Bruce Springsteen "Johnny 99": youtu.be/KuYUxsl_F7k

Mark Burton	Dear Supervisors: The LA County Sheriff, as are most County Sheriffs in California, are elected officials independent of the elected County governing Boards. This is fundamental to having an independent law enforcement officer, one answerable to the citizens of the County. To change this cornerstone of good governance for what appears to be political expediency is just poor judgment, one that is detrimental to the resident of our County. Please honor the "best practice" of having an independently elected Sheriff.

Michael A Mendoza	My name is Michael Mendoza, Director of Advocacy with the Anti-Recidivism Coalition. I'm writing in strong support for the motion to promote accountability and community safety through checks and balances of the Los Angeles county sheriff. The motion would provide Los Angeles the tools to hold the sheriff's department accountable when in violation of the law and build trust between our community and the sheriff's department. The motion would also allow the county to focus on what public safety should look like when there is oversight measures in place necessary to protect the public. Michaela Martin	Hi, my name is Michaela Martin, and I am a representative of/from the Anti-Recidivism Coalition. I am in favor of this particular matter being put on the voting ballot because accountability is a factor that is cohesive with responsibility. Although I do not agree that all police officers should be admonished for the discriminatory and illegal actions of their colleagues, however, I do believe that this proposed action will be the turning point to ending the negligent superiority mindset of other officers who take advantage of people through the law. In many late cases, the punishment given has not fit the crime based on preconceived notions, stereotypes and bias that are acted out by certain officers because they are not held accountable. Even when this type of officers is given a consequence, it is not serious enough to ensure that the illegal incident won't occur again, therefore our justice system sends a message to us civilians that says, "the police officers do not have to obey nor uphold the law because they are above it." Sadly, in today's society people would rather accept being harmed, injured, abused, defrauded, and endure much more inhumane pain and turmoil, rather than call on the ones who are supposed to protect and serve. The reason being because a victim of a crime can easily become the perpetrator of one depending on the temperament of the called officers to the scene. I am in full support of more accountabilities being put towards every part of our justice system beginning with this possible act.
Mike Trejo	Stop with this totalitarian bull crap you dictators.and what you're trying to do is clearly unconstitutional.
Omi Neg	No need for you to have more control.
Padric Gleason	I support this motion because the Sheriff should serve the government of the County, not its own Police Officers Union. It's strange to me that Sheriff is even an elected position, and the Board should be able to remove a corrupt or disgraced official from such an important post.

	Checks and Balances of the Los Angeles County Sheriff. The Los Angeles County Sheriff's actions bear on people with disabilities in multiple contexts: from deputy encounters in the field to the treatment of individuals held in custody. Given the potential for violence and excessive use of force perpetrated by deputies, a Sheriff who exercises effective leadership and submits to transparent review of their department is essential to prevent abuse. Unfortunately, this type of leadership has been lacking in LA County, as demonstrated by countless substantiated incidents of violence perpetrated against civilians-many of them disabled- in the jails and in the community. These incidents prompted the Board to form the Citizens' Commission on Jail Violence, the Office of the Inspector General, and the Sheriff Civilian Oversight Commission. Despite these measures, the current Sheriff has chosen to flout and ignore these oversight mechanisms, with no available recourse by the Board. Disability Rights California joins multiple community and labor organizations in urging you to pass Supervisors Mitchell and Solis's motion directing the Board to refer to the voters a charter amendment allowing removal of the sheriff if certain stringent conditions are met. LA County voters deserve the opportunity to decide how they want County government to operate. We thank you for your continued leadership. Sincerely, Senior Counsel

	Adiana Conrad	LA County BOS: I am writing you to strongly oppose this additional attempt to undermine the voting process and remove power from the people. Your board has no right to decide among yourselves whether or not to remove an elected official from their positions. The governor, even the district attorney has to go through our due process guidelines to be removed from their respective offices. This due process is powered by the California Constitution and executed by the people through the recall process. This process has already worked in various cities even in the very recent past in our state. It is alarming that after clearly having personal, professional, political disagreements with our current sheriff over the last 2 years, that you make this motion to give YOURSELVES the power to override the people AND the processes that protect our rights through the CA Constitution itself. And that, as usual, paint the picture of "promoting community safety". The DA in San Francisco was recalled. The George Gascon Recall has collected well over the needed number of signatures to get it in the process. I adamantly oppose this motion and this complete violation of the voting rights in our state.

	Alaleh Konoudi	I waited in the queue to comment and was never called upon. I heard a lot of people talk about checks and balances. Checks and balances and not have the final say so on anything that includes removal of the sheriff. Is the act on behalf of the people that want to take away voting powers from us, the people, and give it to yourself for having the power or authority with the sheriff you're purposely making the people weaker. This is principality and raising many of us immigrants left our country for. We came to this country so we can trust you are board of supervisors to represent the people. People are getting robbed, mugged, killed in some of LA nicest neighborhoods and you guys are introducing yet another amendment that gives you more power? People can't afford to buy a home and can barely afford the rent but you guys are somehow getting richer and more powerful. Why is this? We will watch how every single one of your votes and we will remember. we see that you move around the city with your security detail without any fear while the people become more victims of poverty, crime and now giving up our rights to The board to make final decisions. Please do not use the language of checks and balances in amendment #12. It is anything but that. It is a corrupt way of you trying to get what you want by deceiving the voters. We see right through you and we will watch you and if you continue this totalitarian behavior we will remove you. People are not stupid. People are smart and we are on to what you're doing. Either make a decision to stop your corruption or we will make the decision to remove you from your seat. Then you can fear for YOUR future and safety like us everyday people.

Alejandra Orozco	Absolutely ridiculous and wrong. The people voted and kept him as our LA sheriff. Are you smarter than us? Are we too incompetent to vote? STOP THIS!
Alicia Barlow	This is absolutely against due process. The Sheriff is voted in by the voting citizens, and if needed must be voted out m/ recalled by those same voting citizens.

Alvaro Cortez	This is ridiculous, majority support the police / the Sheriff . We the people who live in the community, us ; the victims of crimes need a sheriff like Villanueva. Please stop your war and work together. Our community is falling apart. Criminals need accountability. No need of further promoting of accountability and community safety through checks and balances. Work together please. Your battles with the leader of LASD have become personal, wreckless and thousands are suffering because of your personal disapproval.
Alyson S Pernecky	This is a massive overreach by the BOS. The sheriff is elected to do a job and protect our city. We need this more now than ever with the drastic rise in crime and DA that doesn't uphold the law. I strongly oppose this

Amber Campana	The Los Angeles County Sheriff has been an elected official since the beginning of inception in the 1850's. There have been few exceptions throughout the years for the Board of Supervisors to get involved in the processes of appointing a Sheriff which has included appointing a Sheriff when the Sheriff could not complete their elected term due to death, illness or criminal proceedings. The Board of Supervisors are overstepping their powers and taking away the right of the people to vote for their Sheriff. The elections for Sheriff are coming up and should be maintained as a right of the people to choose their Sheriff.

I also implore the BOS to stop trying to run Los Angeles County by your own rules. The County charter was drafted and accepted for a reason to have balance of power. YOU ALL accept for Barger, are running Los Angeles County in to the ground. What you are trying to do is totally illegal just like forcing employees to register for FULGENT GENETICS, TAKING FAKE PCR TESTS AS WELL AS ORDERING EMPLOYEES TO KILL THEMSELVES by taking a poison shot that does not do anything to help or prevent covid OR LOSE THEIR JOBS. Maybe you need to rethink your strategy and remember you serve the people of Los Angeles County not the other way around. Just because the Sheriff does not agree with you does not mean you can get rid of him. Checks and balances is what the county needs not to be run by unlawful women that give no bid contracts to their friends, companies in their district and so on and so forth. Many of the motions that you 4 have put on the books go against the CA and USA constitution and it is really sad to see what you have done to LA county.

Angela Esp	The BOS has already been in violation of the LAC Charter. Many department heads have already left during the implementation of the illegal, unconstitutional COVID-19 vaccine policy including but not limited to DCFS, DPSS, DMH, County Counsel and the Beverly Hills Fire Chief. Sheriff Villanueva has maintained and proven his stance on public service and safety. He serves the public. This Board has shown and proven otherwise & have acted upon their own special interests. We the people of LAC already have a process in place for this such as a recall for an elected official. Gascon will be the first to go.
Angela Mehtemetian	The sheriff is voted into office by the people. This would be a blatant over reach of power.
Angela Werner	Oppose
Angeline Baker	We the people have the power to vote for our elected officials. That power should not be given to the Board of Supervisors. That would be abuse of power.
Anna Kuz
Anne White	The BOS do not, by law, have jurisdiction over the Sheriff. The people have the option of recalling by petition, any elected official who is not serving the will of the people. DA Gascon has met that fate thru the spoken word of the people. Now, the BOS can be recalled by petition as well and the action would be completely warranted as demonstrated by your power grab. Leave the Sheriff alone to perform his duties as he was elected to do. The current BOS has a history of doing what they want to serve their agenda, irrespective of their constituents wishes. The people are weary of this conduct and the self imposed imaginary fiefdom that you seem to have created. Start serving the people instead of trying to hog tie a sherif who was elected by US, the people.

The BOS doesn't need more unchecked power and I believe the voters should be the ones to able to use their rights with their collective votes. If the community doesn't like what the Sheriff is doing then we can vote him/her out, but it should NOT be left to the Board of Supervisors! This also seems very sneaky doing this over the summer. Elizabeth Thomas	So you 5 supervisors think you have the power to put an amendment on the ballot asking us voters to chose I if you can have the power to remove the sheriff we elected? No, you can not! You may not remove the checks and balances that are in place to protect us? We voted him in, they are not allowed to negate our vote. We need to be able to vote for the public health director since she now has more power than the Sheriff! I'd also like a proposition added to the November ballot that either breaks up Los Angeles county into smaller counties that encompass smaller numbers of people to better represent the community like the way the Bay Area is broken up into many smaller counties. Or we needs 2 to 4 board members added to the Board of Supervisors to better represent the most populated county in the county. My community was poorly represented during the pandemic and lumped into the downtown numbers which negatively affected our daily lives even though our numbers were closer to Orange County numbers. We should have had more freedoms like the OC. It's time to break up the most densely

ERICA Zuniga	I am a resident of LA county, in Supervisor's Hahn district. I am writing to voice my strong opposition to Item 12, Promoting Accountability and Community Safety Through Checks and Balances of the Los Angeles County Sheriff. Checks and balances are already in place. The Sheriff was elected by the voters in LA County. By this board passing this motion, you will take away the voice of the voters. You will be taking away the voice of residents to IMPOSE your views. As a Latina with several family members in Law Enforcement, your actions show that you have no respect for the men and women in Law Enforcement (including the many black and brown officers) who put their lives on the line every single day. 	The separation of powers involving the elected Sheriff, the Sheriff's authority, the Sheriff's control of the Sheriff Department, must be maintained to prevent any and all possible negative or undermining influences on the application of law enforcement. The Sheriff's authority should be maintained and separate, chosen only by the voting public, to ensure that proper and civil laws are set, implemented, and enforced. This motion is a complete overreach and usurping my voting rights and discrediting the residents of LA County through Article II of the California Constitution, to recall and move an elected official. As your constituent I strongly advise you to vote NO on this asinine motion.
James Soukup	This is just an attempt to get rid of the sheriff who is doing an excellent job but which goes against this BoS's agenda of letting the homeless camp anywhere they want and making the city a cesspool of feces and needles. I say remove every one of the BoS's immediately. Should be PoSm's if you ask me.
Jami Riley	Strongly oppose. No basis for this. People vote.
Janice Wilson	The Sheriff is an elected official. If the Board votes itself to be an authority to remove an elected official, then that removes any say that we, the voters, have in this office. Please, for the sake of voters rights, vote no on this.

jay biranbaum	this is insane!!!! Completely unconstitutional. He is an elected official - you have no right to do anything but let it be on the ballot!!! YOU ARE DESTROYING LA COUNTY
Jeanne Desilets	I strongly oppose this motion and object to its consideration. We the people of Los Angeles County elect our Sheriff and we provide that department's checks & balances. That's over 10 million people whose voices must be given the opportunity to be heard before any action is taken. This motion takes away our voice and disenfranchises us. Giving a group of 4 people the unchecked ability to remove our elected Sheriff is tremendous overreach, unconstitutional, and ripe for abuse.
Jennifer Colantuono	You are over stepping your boundaries. I strongly oppose this agenda. Just because you don't agree with the great job the sheriff is doing, doesn't mean you can change this. You've already overstepped your authority with Covid mandates. Leave our sheriff alone!

Jennifer Lopez	I strongly oppose this! You have no right to have any power to remove an elected Sheriff. How dare you to even think we would want this board especially to remove the current Sheriff who will be elected again. He is doing his job. Makes you look bad since you're not doing yours properly. To busy trying to destroy someone who actually is the only one protecting all of the residents in the county of Los Angeles.

Jerry Turgeon	I am writing to you in adamant and resolute opposition to the motion by Supervisors Mitchell and Solis "Promoting Accountability and Community Safety through checks and balances of the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department." With this attempt to consolidate power, more checks and balances seem to be needed to govern the Board of Supervisors, NOT the Sheriff's Office. This motion is maddening, usurping my voting rights, and discrediting the people's voice and choice. Checks and balances are already afforded to the people through Article II of the California Constitution, to recall and remove an elected official. And this does work, hence the successful submission of 717,000 signed petitions in the efforts to recall George Gascon. Jessica Mascorro	Please allow voters to elect or recall the sheriff. The Supervisors' bias against Sheriff Villanueva is obvious and this is vindictive against the voters who made him the top vote getter in the primary, who are also your constituents.
Jessica Moffett	This is so outrageous, I can't even believe this is being proposed. The Board of Supervisors should not have the power to remove the Sheriff. He is an elected official. Who do you think you are stripping voters of their voice? This is a huge overreach.
Jessica Reigel	The sheriff has been elected by the people of LA County. It is against our rights to vote the removal of an elected position just because the BOS opinions do not agree with the elected employee. What is the point of democracy and our government if we do not allow for the people within the state to choose?
Jessica Ruiz
Jessica Torres	I strongly oppose giving that kind of power to a group of people who have no idea what it is to be in law enforcement. I live in County jurisdiction and I've seen the neglect to the community's needs by this group who wants to decide who they will allow to be Sheriff. This is an elected position and no group of individuals should have the power to change that based on their own political agenda.

As an LA County resident, I urge you as a local governance body that you listen to the voices of the people and do not put this motion through. The BOS must support the will of Los Angeles County voters and respects that the Sheriff was elected. It would be a mistake to amend the County Charter, especially when there is an election approaching so soon in November. If communities don't support the Sheriff, an election is the right course of action--not a charter amendment that takes the power away from the people. Sincerely, Joe Martins
John Perry	Dear Boardmembers, I am writing to you to ask you to oppose Agenda Item #12. If this agenda item passes you will prove that the board is petty and punitive. The reason you are going after Sheriff Villanueva is because he is not your puppet. He has stood up to the Board of Supervisors and said he will not require his Sheriff Deputies to upload their personal genetic data into Fulgent Genetics, after a private meeting with the FBI informed him of possible security issues with Fulgents ties to the Peoples Republic of China. This is after the Board awarded Fulgent Genetics a no bid contract with the county and came up with an absurd requirement that all county employees upload their data into Fulgent or be fired. He has also stood up to the county officials and stated he will not enforce unlawful mandates, which are not laws. The sheriff is elected by the people, not 5 members of a board. If the people want to remove him, recall him. Let the people decide. That is the same recourse that is currently being used against the LA County District Attorney George Gascon. The LA District Attorney is the one that the Board should be looking to hold responsible for the damage he has caused our communities. Where is your agenda item for that? Please do not listen to the many form letters you have received from people that are just filling in their name. They have not show the capacity to write their own letters stating their personal views. You know what works for the people of Los Angeles County?, voting. That is truly the only way to hold our elected officials accountable. Please do not take that right away from us. Again, I strongly urge the Supervisors to vote NO and to NOT pass agenda item 12. Regards,

Jose Zuniga	I am writing to express my strong opposition to Item 12. The Sheriff is an elected position, and the residents/voters of LA County have made their voice here. The aim of this motion is to take away the voters voice and give the board more power. Where are the checks and balances there? Kung-I W Lukowski	My name is Kung-I Lukowski. I live in District 2 and I'm commenting on Item 12 and general public comments. Item 12 won't address the problems and tragedies that have been brought up by the previous speakers. It does have the danger of creating a circumstance where the Sheriff is more concerned about catering to the will of a few in power versus the rule of law and the will of the people. The voters elect the LA County Sheriff and only the voters should have the power to remove a duly elected official. If a sheriff has violated the law or the constitution, than they should be charged and processed under the rule of law and due process – as we have done in the past. If a sheriff hasn't served the voters' interest than the voters have the right to pursue recall or voting for someone else. If we have a systemic problem in our law enforcement then the Supervisors should be working to address these problems through implementation of systems that can increase law enforcement accountability, such as bodycams, speedy reviews of shootings, improving police training and on-going training, etc. I urge the Board of Supervisors to vote AGAINST ITEM 12 and to focus their energies on enforcing our laws and constitution; solving the problems of crime, homelessness and education that plague our county; and expanding economic opportunity for all residents.
Lacey Scripture
Laina Elder	I vehemently oppose agenda #12. We elected Sheriff Villanueva, and we resent your attempts to remove a Sheriff that we elected and that we support. Lisa Howard	This proposal is truly shocking, even after all the other shocking examples of government overreach the last few years. We live in a democracy, and our sheriff has been democratically elected by the voters. You, as supervisors, may endorse his opposition in November, or support recalling him. But you may not supersede the will of the voters by directly removing him. How can you even come up with this idea? Do you at all understand how democracies work? You should be embarrassed to have brought this proposal forward, and strongly reject it. When I explained to my high schooler what you were trying to do, she said, "Isn't that against democracy?" Um, yes. VOTE NO.
Lisa Plocher	First, thank you to the Board for their service to Los Angeles. In regards to the LA Sheriff issue, the Sheriff is elected by the people and his service should be voted on by the voters, not the Board. Being under scrutiny of the Board would hamper his direct service to the community, by making him more accountable to the Board, rather than the voters. I respectfully oppose this matter and appreciate the opportunity to share my view.

This charter amendment sets a dangerous precedent. The buzz words “checks and balances” were used widely by some speakers this morning, but there are no checks and balances built into the language of the proposed Charter Amendment. Melinda Grotz	The Board of Supervisors should not have the power to change who the people vote for for sheriff. Elections matter, and should not be undone by a small group of people.
Melissa Allgood	I oppose this potential action. Duly elected officials by the county constituents is solely based on the voting habits of those constituents. It is illegal to propose this. Should you even try to move this to a vote in November, we the people of LA County will move to recall each and every BOS member who supported this. The criminal justice system determines crimes of all of us, and you, the BOS included. As an example BOS Mark Ridley Thomas currently under investigation for criminal acts ..we already have a mechanism for removing elected officials. The recall system which we have activated for the DA... that will be on the ballot in November. You are cherry picking, "loopholes". If You have to go these lengths, the only conclusion we can arrive at is your potential criminal activity we haven't found out about yet.... Historically speaking that's a real possibility.

Mia S	The checks and balances are the election where the people decide. We elect our sheriff and any attempt to redirect that decision from the people's or to convince them to give up their power is unethical.
Michael Cisneros
Michael Doucet	The voters of La County should be the ones to decide if an elected official is removed from office. This can be done by a recall or voting out of office at the end of a term.
Michael Trinidad
Michael A Rice	The Sheriff is elected. If we are unhappy with an elected official, we will vote them out of office. This is a violation of the County Charter. Work on fixing homelessness and crime, stop defunding those who protect us. The Board is the real failure for our County!
Michael D Craine	The BOS should have no say as to the Sheriff the people have elected.
Michael R Frick	We need an elected official in office, not a puppet appointed by the board.
Michelle Baker	Withdrawal this propaganda... the board's job is not to unelect the sheriff. This is decided by the citizen's of la county.

Migdalia Bustillos	We do not want board of supervisors interfering
Mike Trejo	Stop with these crazy attacks on our sheriff Villanueva we support him and oppose the crazy attempt to strip our elected officials
Mike and Melinda Currado	We are not in favor of this. There are already laws in place that would address illegal behavior by a sheriff. Do not add more confusion. You do not have the authority to do this. The people vote in the sheriff. Again, no to this idea that does not end up having checks and balances on you.
Mireya Rey
Mitch Clemmons	I oppose this overreach of authority. Our sheriff's are elected by the people to a constitutional office. The people are watching.
Mohsen Kheradpezhoh
Monique Deveau	Voting rights should not be infringed. This should be a matter in which the people of California vote on only!
Moses Vargas	Keep the Sheriff. The BOS is overstepping your authority. Stay in your lane or you will voted out. The Sheriff is in an elected position. There are measures in place to remove him, but it's NOT your position to do so.
Nancy Wang	To pass this motion is a violation of the people's constitutional rights and abuse of your power. If this passes, there will be lawsuits.
Natalie Olson
Nathan Lindenmayer	History is not kind to tyrants.
nava skolnik	This item does not promote accountability or safety but instead, puts the BOS in charge of the Sherrif, ignoring the will of the voters. We voted for the Sherrif, and trust him to make decisions in the best interest of the people and to hear directly from us the people. NOT from the BOS. The BOS has enough power as is, and separation of powers is in the best interest of the people.
Neal Mongan	ATTACK ON DEMOCRACY (e.g. "Promoting Accountability and Community Safety through checks and balances of the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department.") I am writing to you in adamant and resolute opposition to the motion by Supervisors Mitchell and Solis "Promoting Accountability and Community Safety through checks and balances of the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department." With this attempt to consolidate power, more checks and balances seem to be needed to govern the Board of Supervisors, NOT the Sheriff's Office.

Checks and balances are already afforded to the people through Article II of the California Constitution, to recall and remove an elected official. And this does work, hence the successful submission of 717,000 signed petitions in the efforts to recall George Gascon. As your constituent, I implore you to vote "NO" on this horrific motion. This is a direct attack on democracy and an attempt to override the will of voters outside of established processes simply because members of the Board dislike another elected official.
NEIL C	The Sheriff is elected by the people. That IS the accountability!
Nicole Goodfellow	I strongly oppose this attempt to overturn the will of the people who voted for the office of Sheriff and give the authority to the Board of Supervisors. We will not give you this authority. If the people want to recall an elected official, then the people will undertake a recall campaign as has been done for other offices.
Nicole Hale
Nicole Rodriguez	This motion is very disturbing and upsetting to me. This is an attempt to consolidate power and control. This motion would be usurping my voting rights and the voting rights of your constituents and discrediting the people's voice and choice. Checks and Balances are already afforded to the people through Article II of the California constitution, to recall and remove an elected official. I implore you to vote NO on this horrific motion.
Nina Hirten	If an elected official is elected by the people, then he should stay in that position until the next election. THAT IS DEMOCRACY.
Norberto Gutierrez
Ophira Levant	To undo a democratically elected sheriff is to go against the will of the people. You would become petty dictators. Do not pass this vindictive measure. BOS is angry/ embarrassed because the current sheriff is doing*their* job. He cares about safety, and the BOS allows lawlessness.

Rachel Keener	The Sheriff is an elected position. Allow the people to have their choice. We voted him in. We can vote YOU out.
Radene M Cook	My husband and I GREATLY oppose the implementation of the ideas presented in Agenda Item #12. Having a duly elected Sheriff gives our county population the opportunity to have at least one official who answers to we the people FIRST rather than the closest bureaucracy.
Ralph Livingstone	This proposal seems to be an overt attempt to subvert power from, and negate the will of the voters. The Board of Supervisors is NOT a board of dictators. Strongly opposed!
RALUCA PLOOG	Oppose.
Raquel De La Torre	I urge the county board of supervisors to oppose this item. The Los Angeles County Sheriff is an ELECTED official. Unless the people decide to recall, no one should have complete power to remove the person that was elected by the people. This would be tyrannical.

Richard Baas	Any student of history knows what happens when law enforcement is beholden to someone other than the voters. Direct election is the way to do it, not have the Sheriff be an underling of the Board. I oppose this.

			In the United States, no government official should have unchecked power like DA Gascon does. He should also be included in these Changes to the County Charter to ensure essential oversight of DA Gascon and protect the lives and liberties of County residents. HE has put all Los Angeles County residents in harms way with his illegal directives. The Sheriff is protecting all county residents and you're focusing on him and not on Gascon. That's very irresponsible for the Board of Supervisors to look the other way and not even address the problems DA Gascon is creating for Los Angeles County Residents. The Sheriff runs a massive law enforcement agency and doing a great job with minimal resources and funding. The Board of Supervisors should lift the hiring freeze in order for the Sheriff to help protect the safety of all County residents in the 40 cities and the 120 unincorporated areas he's responsible for protecting. The County Board of Supervisors ("Board") is ultimately responsible for guiding and setting County policy and supervising the official conduct of County officers and employees, ensuring that they discharge their duties faithfully. Therefore, you should supervise DA Gascon closely. Why is he allowed to do whatever he wants and not follow County policy? Why are you, Board of Supervisors, not enforcing County policies and supervising Gascon closely and ask him to explain his illegal practices and policies. How many Angelenos have died due to DA Gascon's illegal directives? The Board should focus on that also and not just on the Sheriff and his deputies. All Deputy Sheriffs are willing to help the residents of Los Angeles county and put their lives on the line to protect and serve. They go to work everyday with the intention to help people in the communities. Stop trying to remove the Sheriff and respect the choices of Los Angeles County residents. We elected the Sheriff and he's doing a great job. DA Gascon is the one doing a terrible job in ensuring the safety of County residents so he should be removed and will be removed in the November election.

It would be no different than an amendment to the county charter allowing any elected to a county seat (Board of Supervisors, Sheriff, and Assessor) to be removed by a vote of their elected colleagues (to include the Sheriff and Assessor as voting members). There is a process to remove sitting elected officials as underway with the District Attorney. The county has instituted millions of taxpayers dollars to promote accountability. This vote, if passed, essential symbolizes millions of dollars of taxpayer funds were wasted on ineffective bureaucracy which I personally do not believe to be true evidenced by the many reforms seen

Sandy Concha	The BOS have been in virtual meetings and closed to the public since the start of this pandemic. Sheriff Villanueva and his deputies have continued to provide safety for the people of LA County, while you have been in your homes. I am appalled that this proposal is even up for discussion. Sue Dukesherer	Stop the power grab to subvert the voice of the people. LA County voters elect a sheriff, not the LA County Board of Supervisors. The disdain for Sheriff Villanueva by the LA County BOS is apparent in this proposal. It shows an arrogance and disregard for LA County voters. Agenda item 12 should be removed from the agenda.
Susan Collins	I am emailing to strongly oppose the motion proposed by Supervisors Holly Mitchell and Hilda Solis, referred to as "Promoting Accountability and Community Safety through Checks and Balances of the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department." This is a blatant power grab and an attempt to eliminate the voice of voters. Voters decided that we should be granted the ability to remove elected officials by using the recall process. WE the voters, (your constituents) have not consented to relinquish our ability to have our publicly elected Sheriff remain in office. We have not consented to relinquish our right to maintain that position as an elected office, vs. an appointed position. It is no secret the members of this board do not look favorably upon our current Sheriff. It appears as though Sheriff Villanueva has made the members of this board, Chief Moore, and our City Council members look gridlocked, incompetent and ineffective. Sadly, he did this by turning up for community members and providing them with the safety they've been begging for and that the other agencies have failed to provide. This motion confirms that more checks and balances are needed - for the Board of Supervisors. Voters voted and we have the recall process to reverse an error. Passing this motion will place your integrity on par with Donald J. Trump. Our elected officials do not overturn election results because you disagree. Please Vote NO on this awful motion. Thank you, Susan Collins
Susan Kampff	I strongly oppose this attempt to undermine the voting process and taking away the rights of the citizens of this county to have a voice. We want to keep Sheriff Villanueva in place with no changes to his authority. The people should make bruises decision, not the Board of Supervisors.
Susan Kampff	I strongly oppose the attempt to override the voting and to remove the power from the voting public. These are elected positions and to think you would like to give the authority to just the Board of Supervisors is tyrannical. The Sheriff should have the sole authority over the county as trusted to do so by the voting public.

It's the wrong thing to do. If you do it for the sheriff, then you should do it for ALL elected officials, like the LA County District Attorney, who is now being recalled. That is how an elected official should be taken out of office. By the people, not by the supervisors. Second subject is that if the supervisors were doing their jobs, they would not defund the Sheriff's budget and they would do their jobs. But, we have high crime and homelessness that the Sheriff's department cannot deal with due to the supervisors, LA city council and District Attorney. Villanueva is an excellent sheriff and I hope he stays in office for another terms. And I hope the supervisors get tough. Don't bow to the woke. Do you know how many guns were purchased last month alone due to people being so scared about crime? Over 1 million. Do your jobs and don't blame the sheriff. Help the sheriff.

		William Barnes	The sheriff takes an oath to uphold the constitutional laws. A good sheriff for the people takes the necessary stand against unlawful things against the people. This is totalitarianism . This is wrong. Strongly oppose! Be the hero for the people and oppose this!!
	Other	Adam Holland	Why is the BoS wanting to hold just one gov. official to account and not others? Is it because the current sheriff is doing his job? Elected officials have the responsibility to follow and enforce the passed laws, not to initiate and implement their own personal/ideological vision of what they think LA should be. If you want to hold the sheriff to account you must also be consistent and hold the District Attorney to account as well as all other employees.
		Heather J	I reside in Orange County. I am in favor of improved processes for accountability of law enforcement agencies, including the Sheriff. I recently experienced several crimes in Orange County, within approximately one week (May/June 2022) I questioned the Orange County Sheriffs' failure to file criminal charges. On June 7, 2022, I requested that the Mayor and City Council review the OC Sheriff bodycam footage for one incident (Please see memos to Lake Forest Council). The O.C. Sheriff Department immediately opened an investigation. I have since learned that each of the three written Sheriff reports describe me as "mentally ill". I am not. It appears that because the Sheriffs described me as "mentally ill", the male strangers that viscously threatened my safety (on separate incidents) were not charged with any crime. I am sharing my story to demonstrate that both Private Citizens and those in Law Enforcement was remain vigilant to safeguard against abuse of power and violation of civil rights. I believe the O.C. Sheriffs that falsely stated that I was mentally ill, as well as the O.C. Sheriff that said gaslight me with, "Is Karma here?", are not fit to be Sheriffs. Thank you

I am pleased that a majority of the supervisors are supporting placing a measure on the November ballot to change the LA County charter to create a process for addressing Sheriff misconduct, which has been a problem with many previous LASD culminating in the disdain Sheriff Villanueva exhibits. I completely support this measure being placed on the ballot, but I feel strongly that it does not go far enough to address longstanding problems in the LASD including well documented deputy gangs, corruption within the department and excessive use of force. An earlier draft I read calling for this amendment provided for increased civilian oversight, which I do not see included in the current version.

I work closely with families impacted by law enforcement violence. I have friends whose family members were killed when they called 911 for mental health crisis support, and instead of help were met with LASD violence. I have friends whose unarmed, nonthreatening relatives were shot in the back in what appear to be gang initiation homicides. These shootings were ruled “within policy,” which is obscene to me—we need to have more input into the policy, if LASD considers shooting unarmed 19 year olds and people in crisis valid use of force. I was pleased when County created the Citizen Oversight Commission, but even with subpoena power, LASD ignores subpoenas.

Please strengthen this measure to give us a real tool for reforming the out of control Sheriff’s department beyond punishing what this measure offers. The corruption in LASD has been the subject of massive national attention including FBI. The culture of LASD is completely incompatible with who we are as a County, and frankly they are terrorizing our communities in East LA, and the unincorporated areas where they are law enforcement like Antelope Valley. This measure is a good start but it does not go far enough. Please give us real tools for reform.

Re: Supervisors Mitchell and Solis Motion #12, July 12, 2022
Sheriff Accountability

Honorable Members of the Board of Supervisors:

Disability Rights California (DRC) is the state's protection and advocacy system, charged under state and federal law with advancing the rights of people with disabilities. DRC strongly supports Supervisors Mitchell and Solis's Motion to Promote Accountability and Community Safety through Checks and Balances of the Los Angeles County Sheriff.

The Los Angeles County Sheriff's actions bear on people with disabilities in multiple contexts: from deputy encounters in the field to the treatment of individuals held in custody. Given the potential for violence and excessive use of force perpetrated by deputies, a Sheriff who exercises effective leadership and submits to transparent review of their department is essential to prevent abuse. Unfortunately, this type of leadership has been lacking in LA County, as demonstrated by countless substantiated incidents of violence perpetrated against civilians-many of them disabled- in the jails and in the community. These incidents prompted the Board to form the Citizens' Commission on Jail Violence, the Office of the Inspector General, and the Sheriff Civilian Oversight Commission. Despite these measures, the current Sheriff has chosen to flout and ignore these oversight mechanisms, with no available recourse by the Board.

Disability Rights California joins multiple community and labor organizations in urging you to pass Supervisors Mitchell and Solis's motion directing the Board to refer to the voters a charter amendment allowing removal of the sheriff if certain stringent conditions are met. LA County voters deserve the opportunity to decide how they want County government to operate.

We thank you for your continued leadership.

Sincerely,

To the Esteemed Board of Supervisors,
Thank you for your continued service in these challenging times.

The Los Angeles Regional Reentry Partnership is the largest county-wide network of nonprofit organizations, public agencies, and advocates that works to ensure that our justice-involved reentry system meets the needs of those we serve, both in terms of capacity and public policy. We represent stakeholders across the whole of Los Angeles County. We join with dozens of organizations serving and advocating for formerly and currently incarcerated people to voice our support for increasing civilian oversight of the LA County Sheriff and their staff.

Alongside more than 100 community and labor organizations, LARRP is urging you to pass Item 12 on Tuesday, July 12 and propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights, not inflict harm, and represent the public and the common good. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. For more than 50 years, deputy gangs among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department have terrorized community members, especially in Black and brown communities.

Deputy gangs and other forms of deputy violence have persisted because one sheriff's administration after the next has failed to enact and enforce policies that provide meaningful and consistent discipline when deputies harass, abuse, and kill. This culture of violence has come from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a charter that works for the people of Los Angeles County today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

Besides good governance, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, LARRP urges the Board of Supervisors (Board) to pass Item 12. The Board should refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to email me at troyvaughn@lareentry.org.

Request Council Review of Incident, Extended Stay America, Lake Forest CA

Heather J. <heather92630@gmail.com>

To: "Berglund, Lisa" <LBerglund@lakeforestca.gov>

Hello Lisa,

There is an additional incident that the Lake Forest Mayor and City Council need to be aware of.

I am uncertain of the "date" of the incident, but I believe it was approximately 3 pm Friday, June 3rd 2022. It occurred in the lobby of the Extended Stay America property, 20251 Lake Forest Drive, Lake Forest Ca.

Here is my statement of what occurred:

I was in the hotel elevator. As the doors opened on the lobby floor, a uniformed OC Sheriff sauntered through the glass lobby doors, and directly in front of me, calling out, "Is Karma here?" I recall a lilt in his voice as he emphasized the word, "Karma".

Carla, who is the Extended Stay America Lake Forest property manager, arrived closely behind. Seemingly "on his heels". She arrived through the same glass lobby doorway, and the same direction in the parking lot (left side of parking lot). Carla cheerfully greeted the Sheriff remarking, "This is what, the second or third time you've been here today?"

As I exited the lobby elevator, I remarked to the Sheriff that my name is Heather, and I am the woman who is being harassed by Brett. (Staff had told me the Sheriff had been making repeat visits to the property that day regarding Brett). The Sheriff was facing me, looked at me, but did not reply.

"End" of my statement.

I contacted the OC Sheriff Records, and was provided with the following incident numbers for Friday, June 3rd 2020:

22-0603-0040 (Incident occurred approximately midnight)
22-0603- 0226 (Incident occurred approximately 7 am)
22-0603-0307 (Incident occurred approximately 9 am)

OC Sheriff Records told me that these incidents did involve Brett. However, OC Sheriff Records Specialist saw no incident number for the afternoon of June 3rd, 2022 (which is the time, I believe, when i exited the elevator).

Brett, who is a hotel guest, and is not a friend. He is a predator, and has been threatening me for some time. He stalks me, has threatened to kill me, threatened to kill my dog, and stole my backpack on Saturday May 28th. The Sheriff's found my backpack on May 29th, 2022. He is not a guest here, but has loitered in the third floor hallway, as though waiting outside the door of a friend. On the night of May 28th, 2022 two lady OC Sheriff's responded to my call for assistance. On that night, I reported to the responding Sheriffs that Brett stalks me, has threatened me numerous times, including threatened to kill me. I said he needs to be criminally charged. One of the female Sheriffs replied, "Well, you had an argument". I replied, "That's not what I said." And, in response to my reporting that he has repeatedly threatened to kill me, and to assault me, the same Sheriff said, "Yeah, but were you scared?"

Several days prior to my backpack being stolen a male motorcyclist, engine running, sat on his bike in the center of the parking lot. He appeared to be observing me. I was in the green park area with my dog. This went on for some time. He ultimately parked his bike in a space. I left my dog, walked up to glance at his license plate. As I walked away, the male exploded into a tirade of threats to harm me, kidnap me, and to assault me including sexually. I could not return to where I left my dog, and instead stood with the ESA Lake Forest building side door open, screaming into the stairwell and at the AI camera to call the police. The AI camera recorded it all and also should have caught the man behind me on his bike. I later learned that no one at the hotel front desk heard me, or noticed what happened on the security camera. This went on for several minutes. I reported this incident to the FBI, as domestic terrorism. I also reported this to Sheriff Moondy when he responded to the May 31, 2022 incident.

So having submitting a summary of some of the terror. the Mayor and Council may better grasp how depraved the badged Orange County Sheriff was to make walk in front of me, calling out "Is Karma here?"

Furthermore, it appears the Sheriff conspired with the Hotel Manager to stalk and taunt me regarding the crimes I am being subjected to.

I am asking you to investigate this incident which I believe occurred on Friday, June 3rd, 2022.

Sincerely

Heather J.

Notes

Last Tuesday May 31st, 2022 I entered the lobby of the Extended Stay America property, located at 20251 Lake Forest Drive, Lake Forest California 92630. The time was approximately 8 am. I was ambushed by a stranger, a white male approximately 30 years old. What followed was a violent, extremely violent, rage of hate against me. This was unprovoked on my part. A woman also joined in on the attack. The male stood within inches of my face. I was in fear for my safety. As anyone would be. While this was going on, no one in the lobby phoned, or at least started to phone, the Sheriff. After the male and his female companion left, no one locked the glass doors to the parking area. I requested to use the front desk phone to call the Sheriff, who arrived within an hour. The responding Sheriff determined that no crime occurred. I disagree. And I believe the Council will disagree too when you see what occurred. I would like the City Council to review the hotel lobby recording and for you also to have OCSD take action. OCSD Deputy Mundy, responded to the call however did not write a report because he declared that no crime had been committed. The OCSD incident case is: 22-0531-0239. Thank you Heather J.

Dear Members of the Board of Supervisors,

Alongside more than 100 community and labor organizations, Reform L.A. Jails urges you to pass the Mitchell/Solis motion, Promoting Accountability and Community Safety Through Checks and Balances of the Los Angeles County Sheriff, Item 12 on Tuesday, July 12th to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the LA Sheriff.

Reform L.A. Jails (RLJ) represents a coalition of Los Angeles residents, community leaders, businesses, and organizations fighting to permanently reduce the population of people cycling in and out of jail. RLJ envisions a future where LA has divested from incarceration and invested in community-based services. A future that doesn't criminalize Black, Brown, Indigenous, or poor people, and where communities have the power and resources they need to keep themselves safe, heal, and thrive for generations to come.

RLJ's founding by Black Lives Matter co-founder Patrisse Cullors in 2018 grew out of the years of violence, torture and abuse that her brother received at the hands of LA County sheriff deputies, while he suffered ongoing severe mental health crises. In March 2020 when 73% of the voters passed RLJ's Measure R (the LA Sheriff Oversight and Accountability Ballot Measure), which gave the Sheriff Civilian Oversight Commission subpoena power and other accountability tools, we thought Sheriff oversight finally had the teeth it needed to bring about the reforms Angelenos have been calling for for decades. But instead Sheriff Villanueva has fought every subpoena order, refused to attend Oversight Meetings, harassed family members of murder victims, launched counter-investigations into those charged with overseeing him, and let the deputy gangs run rampant.

In 2021, in response to Sheriff Alex Villanueva's continuous misconduct, Reform L.A. Jails submitted a complaint with the Los Angeles Civil Grand Jury, calling for the Sheriff's removal under CA Government Code Section 3060, for willful and corrupt misconduct in office. Under the Complaint Sheriff Villanueva is accused of repeatedly breaking federal, state and municipal law, violating over a dozen state penal and civil codes, along with both U.S. and CA constitutional amendments. RLJ's Civil Grand Jury Complaint built on the collective work of the movement and the many other legal actions that have been filed to stop this dangerous Sheriff, but unfortunately the Civil Grand Jury declined to advance the case to the District Attorney for prosecution.

Despite the significant steps the Board has taken to create a system of accountability and transparency for the Sheriff's Department, and despite the many legal actions families and community groups have initiated, the behavior and actions of the LA Sheriff and the entire Department have only gotten worse over time. The time for the Board to act is now. An amendment to the LA County Charter allowing for the Sheriff's removal is desperately needed as the last resort to hold the Sheriff accountable where nothing else has worked. As is stated in the motion, "Lack of accountability has been an enduring feature of County sheriffs."

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights, not inflict harm, and represent the public and the common good. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability have been far, few, and ineffective.

We need a Charter that works for the people of Los Angeles County today and tomorrow, one that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating impactful checks and balances on the Sheriff's Department has been long overdue, and changes to our County Charter can ensure essential oversight of the Sheriff. Besides good governance, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the Sheriff's Department.

Therefore, Reform L.A. Jails urges the Board of Supervisors to pass Item 12, and refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

If you would like more information or to discuss this further, please reach out to us through Ben Stolz at Ben@bowersconsulting.com.

Sincerely,

Reform L.A. Jails Team

I am writing to you in adamant and resolute opposition to the motion by Supervisors Mitchell and Solis "Promoting Accountability and Community Safety through checks and balances of the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department." With this attempt to consolidate power, more checks and balances seem to be needed to govern the Board of Supervisors, NOT the Sheriff's Office.

This motion is maddening, usurping my voting rights, and discrediting the people's voice and choice. Checks and balances are already afforded to the people through Article II of the California Constitution, to recall and remove an elected official. And this does work, hence the successful submission of 717,000 signed petitions in the efforts to recall George Gascon.

As your constituent, I demand you to vote "NO" on this horrific motion.

Agenda ITEM # 12

The Office of The Sheriff
Needs to remain in control of
The public Through The Election process

I oppose A Amendment to The County Charter to grant Authority to remove Elected Officers including The Sheriff
by a four-fifths vote.

There are already provisions for the removal of Elected Officers in place.

There is no reason to politicize
This public Office by a group of 5
Supervisors.

Thank you
Stam Lamborne

My name is Cynthia Anderson-Barker. I am a civil rights lawyer on the Board of the National Lawyers Guild. The National Lawyers Guild is supporting agenda item 12. Thank you, Supervisors Mitchell and Solis for your courageous leadership and initiative in addressing the structural issues required to end impunity in the Sheriff's Department. With this motion the Board is exercising its duty under state law to supervise its sheriffs "in order to ensure that they faithfully perform their duties." Local law recognizes that this responsibility includes the authority to direct and approve the development of policy for LASD. The proposed L.A. County Charter amendment should further codify the authority of the Board to oversee and set policies for LASD that do not interfere with the statutory authority of the Sheriff or otherwise conflict with state law. Ideally, the final proposal should include a process for the Civilian Oversight Commission (COC) to improve transparency and accountability in the LASD through civilian oversight. Currently, the COC is conducting hearings into the deputy gangs that exist within the Sheriffs Department. However, the COC can not get the Board to approve a budget for a court reporting service to transcribe these hearings—further impeding the swift progress of the investigation. Loyola Law School has given the COC space in the lecture halls to hold the hearings but when the semester starts the COC needs a new location. The COC also needs its own independent counsel. The Board should appoint such counsel because the Board's lawyers, County Counsel, have a clear conflict of interest. County Counsel defends the Sheriffs Department in pending litigation. The appointment of independent council for the COC will help ensure that civilian oversight is effective and actually works.

Subject: Charter Amendment: LASD Oversight

Dear Supervisors,

My name is Maia Zander, and I am a resident and constituent of District #3. Alongside more than 100 community and labor organizations, I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights, not inflict harm, and represent the public and the common good. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. For more than 50 years, deputy gangs among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department have emerged in Black and brown communities and terrorized community members.

Deputy gangs and other forms of deputy violence have persisted because one sheriff's administration after the next has failed to enact and enforce policies that provide meaningful and consistent discipline when deputies harass, abuse, and kill. This culture of violence has come from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a charter that works for the people of Los Angeles County today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

Besides good governance, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department. Therefore, I urge the Board of Supervisors (Board) to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 election a charter amendment that will allow the Board to remove the sheriff for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Deputy gangs and other forms of deputy violence have persisted because one sheriff's administration after the next has failed to enact and enforce policies that provide meaningful and consistent discipline when deputies harass, abuse, and kill. This culture of violence has come from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a charter that works for the people of Los Angeles County today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

Besides good governance, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department. Therefore, I urge the Board of Supervisors (Board) to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 election a charter amendment that will allow the Board to remove the sheriff for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Sincerely,

Subject: Option for vote to remove sheriff

Hello, my name is Megan. While I have family somewhat nearby L.A., I am not actually your constituent but a resident of Missouri. I still felt the need to reach out all the same. Since L.A. has the biggest prison system in the country, anything that happens there can very well follow to the rest of the country. I appreciate your time for reading this even if I am not a constituent.

Alongside more than 100 community and labor organizations, I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights, not inflict harm, and represent the public and the common good. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, the tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. For more than 50 years, deputy gangs among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department have emerged in Black and brown communities and terrorized community members.

Dear Supervisors,

My name is J.Stephen Brantley and I am a resident and constituent of District 5.

I am writing to you because I have had more than enough of police violence perpetrated by deputy gangs and excused, ignored, and implicitly encouraged by Sheriff Villanueva. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

Besides good governance, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department. Therefore, I urge the Board of Supervisors (Board) to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 election a charter amendment that will allow the Board to remove the sheriff for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Sincerely,
Dr. Miller-Lloyd

Dear Supervisors,

My name is Peggy Lee Kennedy and I am a resident, registered voter and constituent of Supervisorial District 3.

Alongside more than 100 community and labor organizations, I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

And, honestly, its about time.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights, not inflict harm, and represent the public and the common good. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. For more than 50 years, deputy gangs among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department have emerged in Black and brown communities and terrorized community members.

Deputy gangs and other forms of deputy violence have persisted because one sheriff's administration after the next has failed to enact and enforce policies that provide meaningful and consistent discipline when deputies harass, abuse, and kill. This culture of violence has come from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a charter that works for the people of Los Angeles County today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

Dear Supervisors,

Alongside more than 100 community and labor organizations, Community Coalition urges you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

Community Coalition was founded in 1990 by now-Congresswoman Karen Bass to address the impact of the crack cocaine epidemic and mass incarceration on youth and families in South Los Angeles. Today, Community Coalition is recognized as a community institution with an exemplary track record of empowering local residents to seek tangible changes in education, child welfare and public safety with the goal of creating a safer, healthier South LA for all.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights, not inflict harm, and represent the public and the common good. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. For more than 50 years, deputy gangs among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department have emerged in Black and brown communities and terrorized community members.

Deputy gangs and other forms of deputy violence have persisted because one sheriff's administration after the next has failed to enact and enforce policies that provide meaningful and consistent discipline when deputies harass, abuse, and kill. This culture of violence has come from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

The county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department. Therefore, Community Coalition urges the Board of Supervisors (Board) to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 election a charter amendment that will allow the Board to remove the sheriff for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Dear Member of the Board,

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

As a social worker, artist, and long-time LA County resident, this is an action that is essential for voters to have a say in. We citizens of LA are dejected, weary, and fearful of sheriff-condoned violence and corruption. We are tired of feeling helpless.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Dear Member of the Board,

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

Dear Member of the Board,

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Sincerely,

Dear Member of the Board,

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Sincerely,

Dear Member of the Board,

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Sincerely,

Dear Member of the Board,

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Sincerely,

Dear Member of the Board,

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Sincerely,

Subject: On Tuesday, July 12, pass Item 12 to bring about a charter amendment for sheriff accountability

July 7, 2022

Dear Supervisors,

Joining over 100 community and labor organizations, La Defensa, a Los Angeles County based advocacy organization, urges the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors to propose an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability measures of the sheriff and most importantly, give voters the opportunity to support said amendment at the polls.

No matter the office, function or role, our public officials all take an oath to support and respect our rights, not inflict harm, and represent the public and the common good. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few. This lack of oversight and accountability has cost Los Angeles County over $100 million over the past 30 years in lawsuits and settlements.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. For more than 50 years, deputy gangs among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department have emerged in Black and brown communities and terrorized community members.

Reports have discovered at least 18 deputy gangs that plague the Los Angeles Sheriff's Department. Deputy gangs and other forms of deputy violence have persisted because one sheriff's administration after the next has failed to enact and enforce policies that provide meaningful and consistent discipline when deputies harass, abuse, and kill. Sheriff gangs have been responsible for the death of our community members such as 18 year old Andrés Guardado. This culture of violence has come from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a charter that works for the people of Los Angeles County that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Checks and balances on the sheriff's department are long overdue and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

Besides good governance, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, La Defensa urges the Board of Supervisors to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 election a charter amendment that will allow the Board to remove the sheriff for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

LA DEFENSA

August 26, 2021

California Latino Legislative Caucus
Senator María Elena Durazo, Chair
1020 N St, Room 511
Sacramento, CA 95814

Dear Madam Chair and Members of the Latino Caucus:

La Defensa writes in strong support of SB 2 (Bradford & Atkins) - The Kenneth Ross Jr. Police Decertification Act of 2021, which would increase accountability for law enforcement officers that commit serious misconduct and violate a person's civil rights.

La Defensa, an advocacy organization, is deeply committed to decarcerating the largest jail population in the world—the L.A. County jail system—by reducing the size and scope of law enforcement. SB 2 is a step in the right direction to ensuring that officers who harm our communities will not be able to apply elsewhere and continue to wear a badge.

California leads the nation in police killings. Over the last decade over 1,100 Californians were killed by police officers, according to California Department of Justice data. In 2020 alone, 172 Californians died as a result of police use of force.¹ Yet we are only 1 of 4 states that does not have a process to remove police from our streets who engage in serious misconduct. Police officers who engage in anti-Black racism and abuse their power create unsafe communities for everyone. We all deserve to live in communities where we feel safe and protected. California has an obligation to permanently remove their badges to ensure they can do no more harm.

The California Legislature must do more to protect Black people and other vulnerable populations from police officers who use their power to commit racist, abusive, and often deadly acts. When these officers are not held accountable, it erodes community trust and public safety.

Many of you demonstrated your support of police accountability during last year's uprisings following the brutal murder of George Floyd. We are strongly urging Latino Caucus members to stand in solidarity with the movement for Black lives by voting yes on SB 2, which will also protect Latinx people from police violence. Your constituents and communities are counting on you to help keep them safe by supporting SB 2 and decertifying police officers who commit serious misconduct in their communities.

Kenneth Ross, Jr. was murdered on April 11, 2018 by officer Michael Robbins of the Gardena Police Department, who was previously involved in three other officer-involved shootings. In Los Angeles County, Black people made up about 8.5% of the population between 2000-2020, but 25% of people killed by law enforcement.

LA DEFENSA

Police misconduct also has devastating effects on the Latinx community. Nationally, Latinos are killed by police at nearly double the rate of White Americans.² A Washington Post investigation found that between 2015 and 2020, Latinos died at a rate of 23 per million residents after encounters with police, second only to Black people, at 31 per million residents.³

The Legislative Black Caucus has made SB 2 a priority and we are urging Latino Caucus members to do the same. Undocumented folks are being killed by police all throughout CA. As was the case with 19-year-old DACA recipient Jesus Adolfo Delgado, who was shot over 99 times and killed by the San Francisco Police Department in 2018. Antonio Guzman Lopez also had no legal status when he was shot and killed by San Jose Campus Police in February 2015. Families whose loved ones were killed face scrutiny and an added barrier if they don't have legal status.

The Kenneth Ross Jr. Police Decertification Act (SB 2) will:

- Establish a statewide process to decertify officers who are fired for specified misconduct such as excessive force, sexual assault, and dishonesty.
- Give the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training (POST) the power to independently investigate allegations of misconduct and decertify officers who resign before they are fired.
- Increase accountability by:
 - Requiring that local law enforcement report officers who are fired to the state.
 - Ensuring that during the hiring process law enforcement agencies contact the POST commission to gain information on reasons for separation from previous law enforcement agencies.
 - Adding any officers who are decertified to the National Decertification Index (NDI).
 - Requiring annual reporting on the number of investigations conducted by POST and the total number of certificates revoked.

For these reasons, among others, La Defensa respectfully requests your support on this urgently needed reform. If you have any questions about our organization or our position, please contact me at 323-820-8677 or our Project Manager Gabriela Vazquez at 323-633-6699 or by email at gabriela@ladedensx.org. Members of the Board,

My name is Lucas O'Connor, and I am a resident and constituent of supervisorial district 3.

Alongside more than 100 community and labor organizations, I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

Besides good governance, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department. Therefore, I urge the Board of Supervisors (Board) to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 election a charter amendment that will allow the Board to remove the sheriff for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Members of the Board,

My name is Jayme Kusyk and I am a resident and constituent of Supervisorial District #3.

Alongside more than 100 community and labor organizations, I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights, not inflict harm, and represent the public and the common good. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. For more than 50 years, deputy gangs among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department have emerged in Black and brown communities and terrorized community members.

Deputy gangs and other forms of deputy violence have persisted because one sheriff's administration after the next has failed to enact and enforce policies that provide meaningful and consistent discipline when deputies harass, abuse, and kill. This culture of violence has come from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a charter that works for the people of Los Angeles County today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Dear LA County Supervisors,

Supervisor Barger's staff has responded to my email about amending the county charter to impeach Sheriff Villanueva. Thank you for responding to my email. I appreciate you taking the time to do so. I understand the hesitation about amending the charter. I want to write my response to all of you so that you understand how I as a citizen, and how many of my peers and friends who are also LA County residents, feel about Supervisor Barger's response.

My response is this.

- LASD has a rampant history of abuse and corruption, not just under Sheriff Villanueva. Amending the charter wouldn't just allow Sheriff Villanueva to be impeached, but would create an actionable accountability check for future sheriffs. The timing of the November election thus has little to do with the request to amend the county charter.
- The "power of the people" Supervisor Barger refers to only allows the people to elect a sheriff and do something about their discontent once every four years. Each time a sheriff is elected and perpetuates a rampage of brutality, racism, and complete disrespect for accountability, we the people have to wait the rest of the sheriff's term to stop them. To me that doesn't seem like very much power. For me, greater power would allow me to advocate for my county representatives (you all) to impeach the sheriff. The power of the people is now asking you to create a way to impeach the sheriff.
- No offense, but the public and I feel Supervisor Barger, the other Supervisors, and the Civilian Oversight Committee have done nothing to hold Sheriff accountable. When Supervisor Barger says she'll continue to work with COC to hold LASD accountable, that just tells me nothing will continue to be done. By all means, I know they've tried. But according to my understanding, their current powers do not have any teeth to do anything. If they have done something besides voice opposition, something that has actually resulted in an action, could you please tell me for my own education? From my and my peers' analysis (which you gotta admit is pretty high compared to most citizens), the Supervisors and COC have done zero things that have actually kept LASD in check and have resulted in negative consequences for them. Yes, the County and COC have published their opposition and listed LASD's abuses, and yes that is extremely helpful in letting the public know about the sheriff, but has that stopped LASD's abuses in any way in the meantime?
- If you really want to respect the "power of the people," then you would implement Measure J according to its full capacity and give it full funding. After all, that is what we and "the power of the people" voted for and continue to advocate for.

Sincerely,
Sarah Bowers

Meanwhile, Supervisor Barger supports the will of Los Angeles County voters and respects that the Sheriff was elected. It would be a mistake to impeach the Sheriff, especially when there is an election approaching so soon in November. If communities don't support the Sheriff, an election is the right course of action—not a charter amendment that takes the power away from the people.

Subject: Amend Charter to Allow LASD Impeachment

Dear Supervisors,

My name is Sarah Bowers and I'm a resident of Los Angeles in LA County District 2. I'm writing to my specific supervisor, Supervisor Mitchell, and to all of you because of how concerned I am about Sheriff Villanueva, the Sheriff's Department in general, and how our current systems are so unable to hold them accountable.

I'm writing along with more than more than 100 community and labor organizations ddf to urge you to propose to voters an amendment to the county charter that will create more accountability for the Sheriff. Members of the Board,

My name is J.Stephen Brantley, I am a resident and constituent of District 5, and I believe the people of LA County deserve another way to determine how we access public safety. Far from denying residents the power to elect a Sheriff, this puts checks and balances on arguably the most important elected official we have. The Sheriff is not accessible to us - but you, County Supervisors, are. This motion enables us to work with YOU to harness our collective power to keep the LASD accountable. It also sends a message to Sacramento that it is time to update the Wild West laws that allow figures like Villaneuva, Bacca before him, and likely Luna next, to run roughshod over our laws.

Alongside more than 100 community and labor organizations, I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Dear Member of the Board,

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Dear Member of the Board,

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

Deputy gangs and other forms of deputy violence have persisted because one sheriff's administration after the next has failed to enact and enforce policies that provide meaningful and consistent discipline when deputies harass, abuse, and kill. This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. Message: I respectfully submit this as comment to the board. When the board votes on Tuesday July 12 on the motion to bring a county charter amendment for accountability of the sheriff, I urge you to vote yes. We have seen that the sheriff's office under Baca and Villanueva have resisted oversight, calls for transparency and accountability. As a citizen who supports responsible and responsive law enforcement, I ask that you approve the motion to bring a charter amendment for this purpose. Thank you

Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Dear Member of the Board,

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter. What if I'm next, or my family or my friends? Everyday I walk in paranoia thinking about how if I'm not getting hate crimes for being asian, that I'm going to get gunned down for peacefully protesting for my rights in the streets. It is horrifying.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Elected sheriffs are an abomination. Once elected, they become arrogant unaccountable little god-emperors. It's time to cut them down to size. In the long run, sheriffs should be hired and fired by the County, not elected.

Dear Member of the Board,

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Sincerely,

Madge Woods

Dear Member of the Board,

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Sincerely,

Supervisor Barger "supports the will of Los Angeles County voters and respects that the Sheriff was elected" and believes that "It would be a mistake to impeach the Sheriff." While she is correct about the upcoming November election, Item 12 proposes a revamp of the policing system which has wrecked the safety of our Angelenos. Item 12 is about more than impeaching the Sheriff. It seeks to put power back in the hands of people who want their voices heard in regards to LASD, rather than taking "the power away from the people" as Supervisor Barger has suggested.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Dear Member of the Board,

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

Subject: Pass Agenda Item 12 on Tues. 7/12 to keep the sheriff accountable

Dear Member of the Board,

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Sincerely,

Beau Foley

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Dear Member of the Board,

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. Dear Member of the Board,

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Sincerely,

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter. This particular sheriff doesn't even pretend he is a representative of the people who elected him. And he has absolutely no respect for any civilian oversight. This is unforgivable and merits immediate removal.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today (!!) and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Dear Member of the Board,

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

Our current situation is no different.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Sincerely,

Subject: Pass Agenda Item 12 on Tues. 7/12 to keep the sheriff accountable

Dear Member of the Board,

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Sincerely,

Ruben Becerra

We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Dear Member of the Board,

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Sincerely,

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Subject: Pass Agenda Item 12 on Tues. 7/12 to keep the sheriff accountable

Dear Member of the Board,

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Subject: SUPPORT - Charter Amendment for Sheriff Accountability

Dear Supervisors,

I am a resident of the 3rd Supervisorial District, and I am writing in strong support of your motion (agenda item no. 12) to place on the ballot a charter amendment for common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff. Our current sheriff is Exhibit A for why this accountability is needed. The LASD remains a symbol of corruption and abuse, and we must have tools available for situations like this, when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. Establishing checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

I urge you to please approve for the November ballot an amendment to our county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

Thank you,

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Dear Member of the Board,

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. Subject: Pass Agenda Item 12 on Tues. 7/12 to keep the sheriff accountable

Dear Member of the Board,

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Sincerely,

Andrea Carcovich

Subject: Pass Agenda Item 12 on Tues. 7/12 to keep the sheriff accountable

Dear Member of the Board,

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Sincerely,

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Dear Member of the Board,

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. Subject: Pass Agenda Item 12 on Tues. 7/12 to keep the sheriff accountable

Dear Member of the Board,

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Sincerely,

Amber Koppel

Subject: Amend Charter to Allow LASD Impeachment

Dear Supervisors,

My name is Sarah Bowers and I'm a resident of Los Angeles in LA County District 2. I'm writing to my specific supervisor, Supervisor Mitchell, and to all of you because of how concerned I am about Sheriff Villanueva, the Sheriff's Department in general, and how our current systems are so unable to hold them accountable.

I'm writing along with more than more than 100 community and labor organizations ddf to urge you to propose to voters an amendment to the county charter that will create more accountability for the Sheriff. I urge the Board of Supervisors (Board) to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 election a charter amendment that will allow the Board to remove the sheriff for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. For more than 50 years, deputy gangs among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department have emerged in Black and brown communities and terrorized community members.

Deputy gangs and other forms of deputy violence have persisted because one sheriff's administration after the next has failed to enact and enforce policies that provide meaningful and consistent discipline when deputies harass, abuse, and kill. This culture of violence has come from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

Please do something. Please propose to the voters an amendment to impeach the Sheriff.

Sincerely,

We need a charter that works for the people of Los Angeles County today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff have been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

Besides good governance, this is a matter of racial justice. The county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department. Therefore, I urge the Board of Supervisors (Board) to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 election a charter amendment that will allow the Board to remove the sheriff for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Subject: Charter Amendment for LA County

Dear Supervisors,

I am a resident and constituent of LA County District 5. Alongside more than 100 community and labor organizations, I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

Public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights, not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. For more than 50 years, deputy gangs among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department have emerged in Black and brown communities and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a charter that works for the people of Los Angeles County today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for dealing with a sheriff who violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

Deputy gangs and other forms of deputy violence have persisted because one sheriff's administration after the next has failed to enact and enforce policies that provide meaningful and consistent discipline when deputies harass, abuse, and kill. This culture of violence has come from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a charter that works for the people of Los Angeles County today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

Besides good governance, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department. Therefore, I urge the Board of Supervisors (Board) to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 election a charter amendment that will allow the Board to remove the sheriff for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Sincerely,

Geneva Fabry

Dear Supervisors,

My name is Melissa Manousos and I am a resident and constituent of District 1. Alongside more than 100 community and labor organizations, I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights, not inflict harm, and represent the public and the common good. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. For more than 50 years, deputy gangs among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department have emerged in Black and brown communities and terrorized community members.

Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

Besides good governance, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department. Therefore, I urge the Board of Supervisors (Board) to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 election a charter amendment that will allow the Board to remove the sheriff for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Sincerely,
Grace Doyle

Subject: We need checks and balances for the sheriff's office

Dear Supervisors,

My name is Dr. Leah Miller-Lloyd. I am a Family Physician, resident and constituent of the 4th Supervisorial District.

Alongside more than 100 community and labor organizations, I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights, not inflict harm, and represent the public and the common good. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. For more than 50 years, deputy gangs among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department have emerged in Black and brown communities and terrorized community members.

Deputy gangs and other forms of deputy violence have persisted because one sheriff's administration after the next has failed to enact and enforce policies that provide meaningful and consistent discipline when deputies harass, abuse, and kill. This culture of violence has come from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a charter that works for the people of Los Angeles County today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

Besides good governance, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department. Dear Supervisors,

Alongside more than 100 community and labor organizations, Community Coalition urges you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

Community Coalition was founded in 1990 by now-Congresswoman Karen Bass to address the impact of the crack cocaine epidemic and mass incarceration on youth and families in South Los Angeles. Today, Community Coalition is recognized as a community institution with an exemplary track record of empowering local residents to seek tangible changes in education, child welfare and public safety with the goal of creating a safer, healthier South LA for all.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights, not inflict harm, and represent the public and the common good. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. Dear Member of the Board,

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

As a social worker, artist, and long-time LA County resident, this is an action that is essential for voters to have a say in. We citizens of LA are dejected, weary, and fearful of sheriff-condoned violence and corruption. We are tired of feeling helpless.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Subject: Pass Agenda Item 12 on Tues. 7/12 to keep the sheriff accountable
Date: Thursday, July 7, 2022 2:09:25 PM

Dear Member of the Board,

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Sincerely,

Dear Member of the Board,

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Sincerely,

Dear Member of the Board,

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Sincerely,

Dear Member of the Board,

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Dear Member of the Board,

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Subject: On Tuesday, July 12, pass Item 12 to bring about a charter amendment for sheriff accountability

July 7, 2022

Dear Supervisors,

Joining over 100 community and labor organizations, La Defensa, a Los Angeles County based advocacy organization, urges the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors to propose an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability measures of the sheriff and most importantly, give voters the opportunity to support said amendment at the polls.

No matter the office, function or role, our public officials all take an oath to support and respect our rights, not inflict harm, and represent the public and the common good. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few. This lack of oversight and accountability has cost Los Angeles County over $100 million over the past 30 years in lawsuits and settlements.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. For more than 50 years, deputy gangs among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department have emerged in Black and brown communities and terrorized community members.

Reports have discovered at least 18 deputy gangs that plague the Los Angeles Sheriff's Department. Deputy gangs and other forms of deputy violence have persisted because one sheriff's administration after the next has failed to enact and enforce policies that provide meaningful and consistent discipline when deputies harass, abuse, and kill. Sheriff gangs have been responsible for the death of our community members such as 18 year old Andrés Guardado. This culture of violence has come from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a charter that works for the people of Los Angeles County that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Checks and balances on the sheriff's department are long overdue and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

Besides good governance, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, La Defensa urges the Board of Supervisors to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 election a charter amendment that will allow the Board to remove the sheriff for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Sincerely,

Gabriela Vazquez

LA DEFENSA

August 26, 2021

California Latino Legislative Caucus
Senator María Elena Durazo, Chair
1020 N St, Room 511
Sacramento, CA 95814

Dear Madam Chair and Members of the Latino Caucus:

La Defensa writes in strong support of SB 2 (Bradford & Atkins) - The Kenneth Ross Jr. Police Decertification Act of 2021, which would increase accountability for law enforcement officers that commit serious misconduct and violate a person's civil rights.

La Defensa, an advocacy organization, is deeply committed to decarcerating the largest jail population in the world—the L.A. County jail system—by reducing the size and scope of law enforcement. SB 2 is a step in the right direction to ensuring that officers who harm our communities will not be able to apply elsewhere and continue to wear a badge.

California leads the nation in police killings. Over the last decade over 1,100 Californians were killed by police officers, according to California Department of Justice data. In 2020 alone, 172 Californians died as a result of police use of force.¹ Yet we are only 1 of 4 states that does not have a process to remove police from our streets who engage in serious misconduct. Police officers who engage in anti-Black racism and abuse their power create unsafe communities for everyone. We all deserve to live in communities where we feel safe and protected. California has an obligation to permanently remove their badges to ensure they can do no more harm.

The California Legislature must do more to protect Black people and other vulnerable populations from police officers who use their power to commit racist, abusive, and often deadly acts. When these officers are not held accountable, it erodes community trust and public safety.

Many of you demonstrated your support of police accountability during last year's uprisings following the brutal murder of George Floyd. We are strongly urging Latino Caucus members to stand in solidarity with the movement for Black lives by voting yes on SB 2, which will also protect Latinx people from police violence. Your constituents and communities are counting on you to help keep them safe by supporting SB 2 and decertifying police officers who commit serious misconduct in their communities.

Kenneth Ross, Jr. was murdered on April 11, 2018 by officer Michael Robbins of the Gardena Police Department, who was previously involved in three other officer-involved shootings. In Los Angeles County, Black people made up about 8.5% of the population between 2000-2020, but 25% of people killed by law enforcement.

LA DEFENSA

Police misconduct also has devastating effects on the Latinx community. Nationally, Latinos are killed by police at nearly double the rate of White Americans.² A Washington Post investigation found that between 2015 and 2020, Latinos died at a rate of 23 per million residents after encounters with police, second only to Black people, at 31 per million residents.³

The Legislative Black Caucus has made SB 2 a priority and we are urging Latino Caucus members to do the same. Undocumented folks are being killed by police all throughout CA. As was the case with 19-year-old DACA recipient Jesus Adolfo Delgado, who was shot over 99 times and killed by the San Francisco Police Department in 2018. Antonio Guzman Lopez also had no legal status when he was shot and killed by San Jose Campus Police in February 2015. Families whose loved ones were killed face scrutiny and an added barrier if they don't have legal status.

The Kenneth Ross Jr. Police Decertification Act (SB 2) will:

- Establish a statewide process to decertify officers who are fired for specified misconduct such as excessive force, sexual assault, and dishonesty.
- Give the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training (POST) the power to independently investigate allegations of misconduct and decertify officers who resign before they are fired.
- Increase accountability by:
 - Requiring that local law enforcement report officers who are fired to the state.
 - Ensuring that during the hiring process law enforcement agencies contact the POST commission to gain information on reasons for separation from previous law enforcement agencies.
 - Adding any officers who are decertified to the National Decertification Index (NDI).
 - Requiring annual reporting on the number of investigations conducted by POST and the total number of certificates revoked.

For these reasons, among others, La Defensa respectfully requests your support on this urgently needed reform. If you have any questions about our organization or our position, please contact me at 323-820-8677 or our Project Manager Gabriela Vazquez at 323-633-6699 or by email at gabriela@lodefensa.org. Sincerely,

Eunisses Hernandez

Members of the Board,

My name is Lucas O'Connor, and I am a resident and constituent of supervisorial district 3.

Alongside more than 100 community and labor organizations, I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights, not inflict harm, and represent the public and the common good. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. For more than 50 years, deputy gangs among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department have emerged in Black and brown communities and terrorized community members.

Deputy gangs and other forms of deputy violence have persisted because one sheriff's administration after the next has failed to enact and enforce policies that provide meaningful and consistent discipline when deputies harass, abuse, and kill. This culture of violence has come from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a charter that works for the people of Los Angeles County today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

Besides good governance, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department. Therefore, I urge the Board of Supervisors (Board) to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 election a charter amendment that will allow the Board to remove the sheriff for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Sincerely,
Lucas O'Connor

Dear LA County Supervisors,

Supervisor Barger's staff has responded to my email about amending the county charter to impeach Sheriff Villanueva. Thank you for responding to my email. I appreciate you taking the time to do so. I understand the hesitation about amending the charter. I want to write my response to all of you so that you understand how I as a citizen, and how many of my peers and friends who are also LA County residents, feel about Supervisor Barger's response.

My response is this.

- LASD has a rampant history of abuse and corruption, not just under Sheriff Villanueva. Amending the charter wouldn't just allow Sheriff Villanueva to be impeached, but would create an actionable accountability check for future sheriffs. The timing of the November election thus has little to do with the request to amend the county charter.
- The "power of the people" Supervisor Barger refers to only allows the people to elect a sheriff and do something about their discontent once every four years. Each time a sheriff is elected and perpetuates a rampage of brutality, racism, and complete disrespect for accountability, we the people have to wait the rest of the sheriff's term to stop them. To me that doesn't seem like very much power. For me, greater power would allow me to advocate for my county representatives (you all) to impeach the sheriff. The power of the people is now asking you to create a way to impeach the sheriff.
- No offense, but the public and I feel Supervisor Barger, the other Supervisors, and the Civilian Oversight Committee have done nothing to hold Sheriff accountable. When Supervisor Barger says she'll continue to work with COC to hold LASD accountable, that just tells me nothing will continue to be done. By all means, I know they've tried. But according to my understanding, their current powers do not have any teeth to do anything. If they have done something besides voice opposition, something that has actually resulted in an action, could you please tell me for my own education? From my and my peers' analysis (which you gotta admit is pretty high compared to most citizens), the Supervisors and COC have done zero things that have actually kept LASD in check and have resulted in negative consequences for them. Yes, the County and COC have published their opposition and listed LASD's abuses, and yes that is extremely helpful in letting the public know about the sheriff, but has that stopped LASD's abuses in any way in the meantime?
- If you really want to respect the "power of the people," then you would implement Measure J according to its full capacity and give it full funding. After all, that is what we and "the power of the people" voted for and continue to advocate for.

Sincerely,
Sarah Bowers

Meanwhile, Supervisor Barger supports the will of Los Angeles County voters and respects that the Sheriff was elected. It would be a mistake to impeach the Sheriff, especially when there is an election approaching so soon in November. If communities don't support the Sheriff, an election is the right course of action—not a charter amendment that takes the power away from the people.

Subject: Amend Charter to Allow LASD Impeachment

Dear Supervisors,

My name is Sarah Bowers and I'm a resident of Los Angeles in LA County District 2. I'm writing to my specific supervisor, Supervisor Mitchell, and to all of you because of how concerned I am about Sheriff Villanueva, the Sheriff's Department in general, and how our current systems are so unable to hold them accountable.

I'm writing along with more than more than 100 community and labor organizations ddf to urge you to propose to voters an amendment to the county charter that will create more accountability for the Sheriff. Members of the Board,

My name is J.Stephen Brantley, I am a resident and constituent of District 5, and I believe the people of LA County deserve another way to determine how we access public safety. Far from denying residents the power to elect a Sheriff, this puts checks and balances on arguably the most important elected official we have. The Sheriff is not accessible to us - but you, County Supervisors, are. This motion enables us to work with YOU to harness our collective power to keep the LASD accountable. It also sends a message to Sacramento that it is time to update the Wild West laws that allow figures like Villaneuva, Bacca before him, and likely Luna next, to run roughshod over our laws.

Alongside more than 100 community and labor organizations, I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Dear Member of the Board,

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Dear Member of the Board,

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. Message: I respectfully submit this as comment to the board. When the board votes on Tuesday July 12 on the motion to bring a county charter amendment for accountability of the sheriff, I urge you to vote yes. We have seen that the sheriff's office under Baca and Villanueva have resisted oversight, calls for transparency and accountability. As a citizen who supports responsible and responsive law enforcement, I ask that you approve the motion to bring a charter amendment for this purpose. Thank you

We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Dear Member of the Board,

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter. What if I'm next, or my family or my friends? Everyday I walk in paranoia thinking about how if I'm not getting hate crimes for being asian, that I'm going to get gunned down for peacefully protesting for my rights in the streets. It is horrifying.

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Elected sheriffs are an abomination. Once elected, they become arrogant unaccountable little god-emperors. It's time to cut them down to size. In the long run, sheriffs should be hired and fired by the County, not elected.

Dear Member of the Board,

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Sincerely,

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Dear Member of the Board,

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. Supervisor Barger "supports the will of Los Angeles County voters and respects that the Sheriff was elected" and believes that "It would be a mistake to impeach the Sheriff." While she is correct about the upcoming November election, Item 12 proposes a revamp of the policing system which has wrecked the safety of our Angelenos. Item 12 is about more than impeaching the Sheriff. It seeks to put power back in the hands of people who want their voices heard in regards to LASD, rather than taking "the power away from the people" as Supervisor Barger has suggested.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Dear Member of the Board,

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Sincerely,

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Dear Member of the Board,

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter. This particular sheriff doesn't even pretend he is a representative of the people who elected him. And he has absolutely no respect for any civilian oversight. This is unforgivable and merits immediate removal.

Dear Member of the Board,

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Sincerely,

Jeannette Martinez

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12. I urge you to refer to the voters for the November 8, 2022 Election a charter amendment that will allow removal of the sheriff by a four-fifths vote of the Board for serious violations of the public trust, reinforce the Board's policy-making authority over the sheriff's department, and ensure permanent and independent civilian oversight.

Subject: Pass Agenda Item 12 on Tues. 7/12 to keep the sheriff accountable

Dear Member of the Board,

I write to urge you to propose to the voters an amendment to the county charter that will create common sense checks and balances and accountability of the sheriff.

No matter what office, function or role, our public officials take an oath to support and respect our rights and represent the public and the common good -- not inflict harm. But in Los Angeles County, when a sheriff breaches this oath and abuses their power, our tools for real and meaningful accountability are tragically far and few.

For decades, Angelenos have witnessed a culture of corruption and impunity in the sheriff's department, leaving people who are stopped or incarcerated at risk of abuse or worse. And for more than half a century, deputy gangs have emerged among the ranks and management of the sheriff's department and terrorized community members.

This culture of violence comes from the very top and is left unchecked by our dated charter.

We need a county charter that works for the people of Los Angeles today and tomorrow, and that gives us the tools necessary for when a sheriff violates the law and the public trust. We need checks and balances, which are pillars of a functioning democracy, aimed at not allowing one person or agency to become too powerful. Creating checks and balances on the sheriff has been long overdue, and changes to our county charter can ensure essential oversight of the sheriff.

At its heart, this is a matter of racial justice, and the county can no longer tinker around the edges of significant structural reform of the sheriff's department.

Therefore, I urge the supervisors to pass Item 12 at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, July 12.
