“Educating, Motivating and Inspiring Women”

November 11, 2016

Dear Friend(s):

In celebration of Women’s History Month, the Los Angeles County Commission for Women and the Board of Supervisors will proudly honor women of the community for their exceptional work at the 32nd Annual “Women of the Year” Awards and Scholarship Luncheon to be held on Monday, March 13, 2017.

Event proceeds provide funding to promote vital outreach throughout Los Angeles County in fulfilling the Commission’s goals of “Educating, Motivating and Inspiring Women,” as well as, to fund critical education scholarships.

As is the tradition, the Supervisors and the Commission President will select their designated Awardees and then there are six award categories for at-large nominations. This year the Commission will also be honoring a Youth Leader; this Awardee will be nominated and selected by the Commission. The criteria for all at-large nominations are as follows:

- Your nominee must have volunteered (or worked outside of their professional job description) on behalf of women; advocated on behalf of women’s rights; made significant contributions to women’s equality issues, or served as a role model for women within the following categories: Education, Health, Arts/Media, Business/Labor, Law/Public Safety, and Women Veterans.
- Previous members of the Commission may be nominated for their current activities and involvement relating to advocacy for women.
- Previous recipients are not eligible for this award.
(See website at <http://laccw.lacounty.gov/> for past honorees).

We welcome your nominations of phenomenal individuals whose accomplishments meet the established eligibility criteria. No self-nomination will be accepted.

Please complete the enclosed nomination application or visit our website at <http://laccw.lacounty.gov/> and return the completed form, along with a brief biography of your nominee via mail, fax or email as follows:
