Los Angeles, California 90012

39-A

The following statement was entered into the record for Supervisor Burke:

“National ‘Employ Older Workers Week’ has been observed in California since 1959 and is celebrated throughout the nation during the last full week of September. During this week, it is important to highlight the importance of recognizing the talents of this population.

“Older workers are valued for having a good work ethic and for providing experience, knowledge and dependability in the workplace.”

Therefore, on motion of Supervisor Burke, seconded by Supervisor Yaroslavsky, unanimously carried (Supervisors Knabe and Antonovich being absent), the Board proclaimed September 21 through 27, 2008 as “Employ Older Workers Week” throughout Los Angeles County; encouraged employers to include older workers as a part of their workforce; and encouraged older workers to participate in the local celebration events.
