“On October 2, 2003, the District Attorney’s Office will be hosting a fund-raising event to support its employee recognition ceremonies and other employee events. Employees of the District Attorney’s Office are among the finest in the County, and have achieved national prominence in the quality of their work and for their dedication to service to the community. These types of employee recognition events should be strongly encouraged and supported. The fund-raising event will be held in the County Mall area, between the Kenneth Hahn Hall of Administration and the Stanley Mosk Courthouse, and will consist of food sales.”
