Museum Goals

Through state of the art exhibits, the Museum of Tolerance lets millions of visitors become witnesses to history, puts a spotlight on the discrimination and inequities that are still part of our social fabric and challenges us to confront prejudice, including our own.

MUSEUM OF TOLERANCE
A SIMON WIESENTHAL CENTER MUSEUM

One-To-One

A future-oriented, solutions -oriented, and strengths- based bias reduction program designed for offenders of bias/hate related misdemeanors and higher level crimes.

Age appropriate and content customization for: Youths and Adults

Whether part of a diversion program or condition of sentencing, probation, or parole, One-to-One is an alternative placement and specialized treatment for bias remediation.

DHS Grant funded FY 2021-2022 for all appropriate referrals.

MOT: Powerful Learning Environment

"Sometimes the brain needs a kick start... Unusual spaces force [the] brain to process inputs in novel ways, sprouting new connections and making synapses where none existed before."

One-To-One: The Program

Approximately 12 hours total:

- Interview and pre-survey to begin relationship and assess needs
- Customized facilitated exploration at the Museum (or virtually) designed to enhance understanding of human dignity and our collective responsibility to preserve it.
- Private Meeting with a special speaker (credible witness) from the targeted group or a former hate crimes offender who can dialogue and create context for the bias and its consequences.
- Coaching sessions using neuro-science based planning tools for goal-setting
- Essay, journal writing or artistic representation project on the experience presented to referring justice partner.

One-to-One Outcomes

- Increased willingness to assume responsibility for one's actions
- Enhanced empathy toward others (target group and others)
- Improved understanding of the impact of bias/hate
- Strengthened resilience against biased activities
- Increased comfort in using and applying action -based tools to make positive changes
