

ODR Housing

A permanent supportive housing program that serves individuals who are homeless, have a serious mental health disorder, and are incarcerated in the Los Angeles County Jail. The intervention consists of pre-release jail in-reach services, enhanced treatment efforts, and immediate interim housing upon release from jail in anticipation of permanent supportive housing.

Clients Ever Released

4144

Currently Active Clients

1926

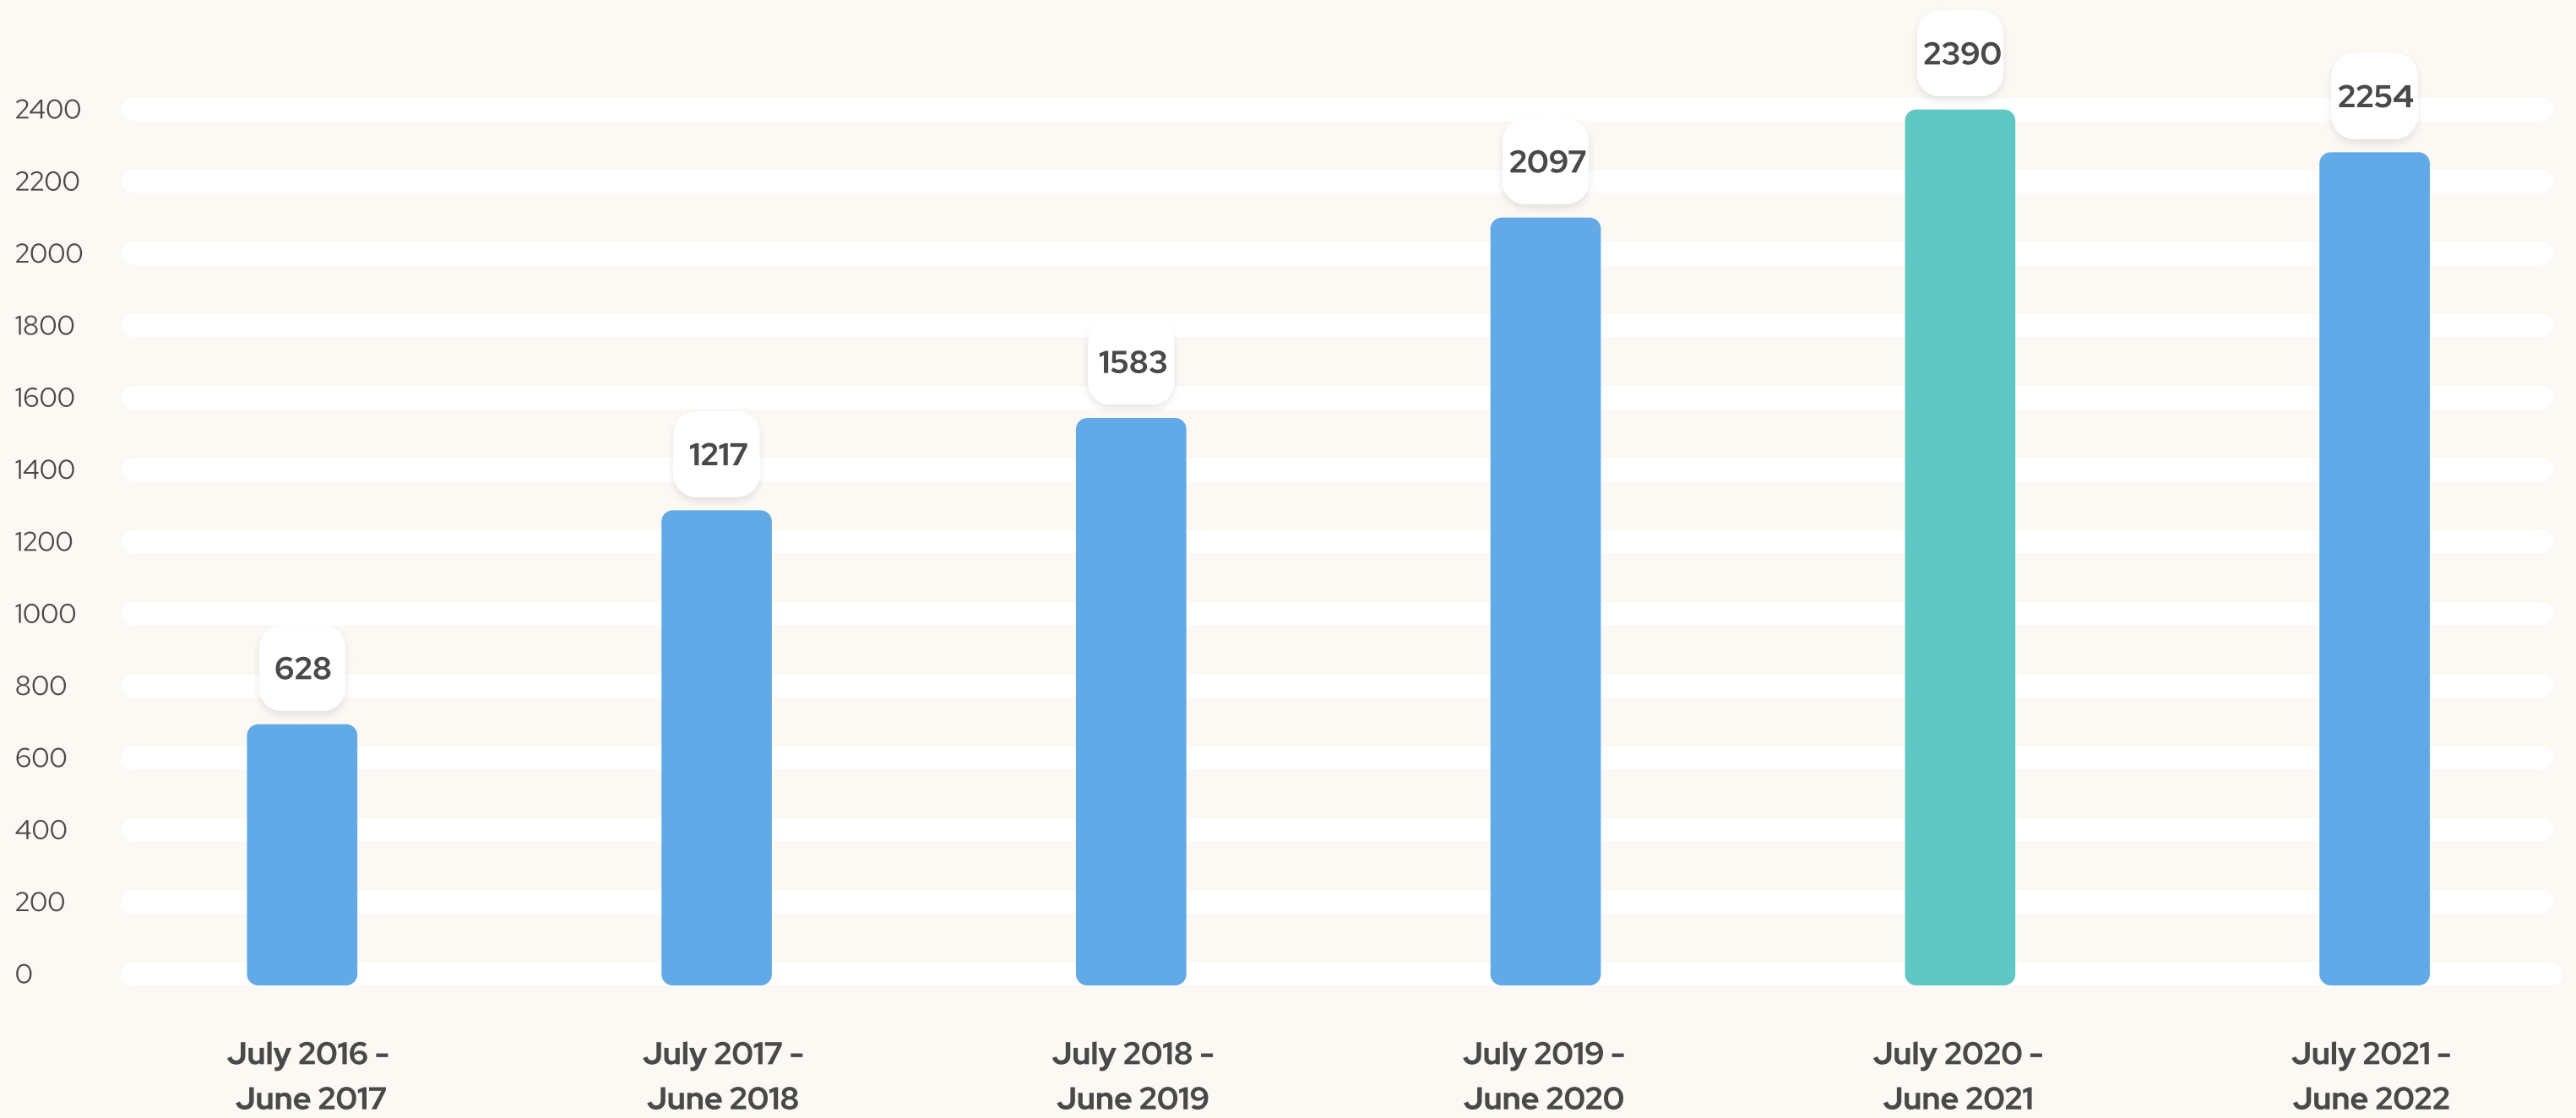

Clients in Permanent Supportive Housing

715

Clients Who Have Completed Probation

323

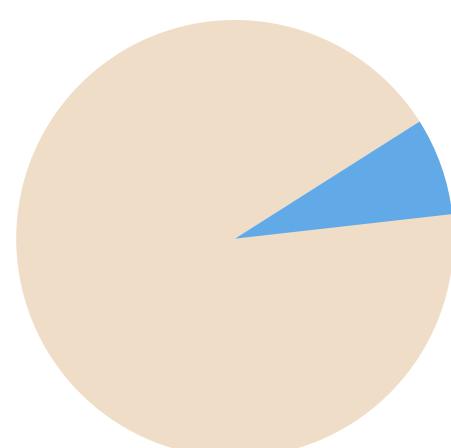

Year-to-Year ODR Housing Population

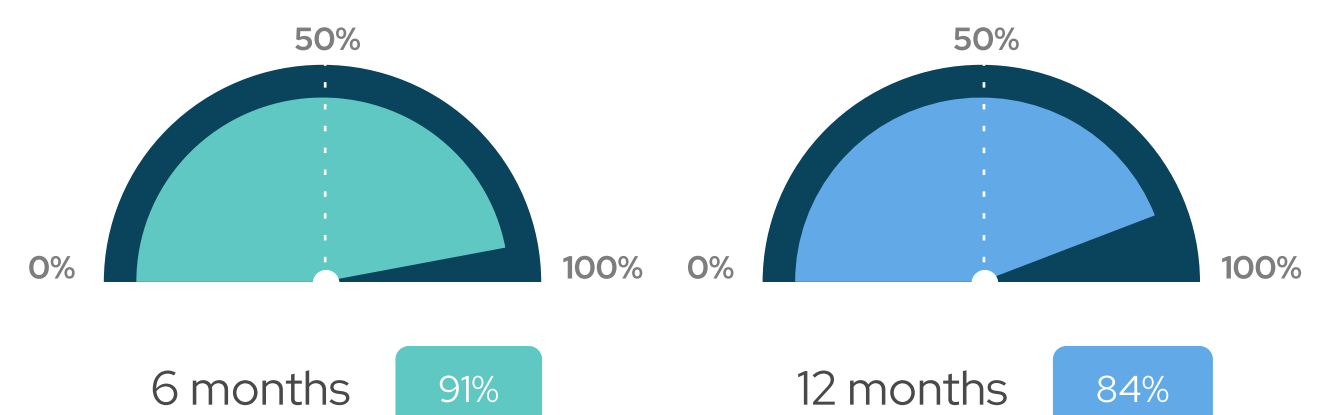

Number of ODR HOUSING Clients on PC 1001.36* vs. Post-Conviction Clients

Total 1740

- PC 1001.36* 211
- Post-conviction 1529

Permanent Supportive Housing Retention Rate

*California Penal Code (PC) 1001.36 allows for pretrial mental health diversion with eventual charge dismissal upon program completion.