

Martin Luther King, Jr Multi-Ambulatory Care Center
Ambulatory Care Clinic Nursing Opportunities

Looking for Registered Nurse III

Nursing Opportunities

- Career Advancement
- Expand your Leadership experience and skills
- Assist management with strengthening the Primary Care Medical Home Structure
- Work Monday – Friday, Weekend and Holiday Off

Examples of Duties Include But Not Limited to:

- Provide nursing guidance and support to an ambulatory Primary Care Medical Home team
- Serve as a professional role model, provide direction, and act as an effective resource person
- Uses customer services skills to improve, deliver of care & promote positive patient experiences
- Manage PCMH High Risk Population
- Generate reports from ORCHID for Population Management
- Coordinate Care for post-discharge patients
- Provide outreach for healthcare maintenance needs as per Care Coordination Document
- Schedule and perform Patient Initial Health Assessments as needed

Interested applicants should hold the position or be on the County Certification List. Resumes will be reviewed and accepted until the needs of the department are met. Submit letter of interest, resume and last two years of performance evaluations and attendance records to:

Martin Luther King, Jr Multi-Ambulatory Care Center

Tracie Cobbs

12021 S. Wilmington Ave. Los Angeles, CA 90059

424-338-1646 (phone)

310-223-1044 (fax)

thcobbs@dhs.lacounty.gov