This two part training provides educational support for peers and volunteers working in the mental health setting. Part I-the Ethics, Boundaries and Confidentiality focuses on the principles of interpersonal boundaries, disclosure of information, ethical relationships with clients, and navigating ethical dilemmas. Topics include: peer support ethics and conflicts of interest, setting and maintaining appropriate interpersonal boundaries, and confidentiality in an ethical context. Part II-the Introduction to Group Facilitation segment trains new group facilitators the basics of operating a self-help support. It is aimed to those interested in developing new support groups or assuming responsibility for existing community support groups. Topics include: facilitator role and responsibilities, meeting format and guidelines, nonviolent communication principles and problem solving techniques. Lastly, participants will gain knowledge to guide them in their service delivery and promote best practices.

TARGET AUDIENCE: Peer staff and volunteers from DMH directly operated and contracted programs

OBJECTIVES: As a result of attending this training, participants should be able to:
1. Identify guidelines for Peer Support workers in service delivery
2. Recognize potential boundaries and how to react
3. Explain confidentiality in an ethical context
4. Define the role and responsibilities of a facilitator
5. State group facilitating techniques
6. Identify challenging behaviors and situations
7. Facilitate self-care
