12-Hour California Law and Ethics Course

The Workforce Education & Training (WET) Division is offering a “12-Hour California Law and Ethics,” a self-study course with a web-based exam, for Associate Social Workers (ASW), Associate Marriage & Family Therapist (AMFT), and Associate Professional Clinical Counseling (APCC) through the Association for Advanced Training in the Behavioral Sciences (AATBS). Effective January 1, 2016, Board of Behavioral Sciences has adopted a new license exam structure, which requires all ASWs, AMFTs, and APCCs to take a California Law and Ethics exam at least once during any one-year registration renewal cycle. If ASWs, AMFTs, and APCCs don’t pass the exam prior to their registration’s expiration date, they must complete a 12 hour course in California Law and Ethics before they will be allowed to retake the exam.
