

CBO DISPATCHES AND BULLETINS ISSUED IN 2019

The Central Business Office (CBO) issues notices to provide useful tips and information related to reporting services, submitting claims, payment, financial screening and financial operations workflow, benefits establishment, and best billing practice guidelines. The goal of CBO's informational Dispatches and Bulletins is to enhance operational workflows as well as the quality and outcome of billing and claiming for services of all Los Angeles County Short-Doyle specialty mental health providers. Below is a list of all of the CBO Dispatches and Bulletins that were issued to contract provider programs in 2019. This list will help program staff ensure that they have received all informational or instructional Dispatches and Bulletins published last year.
