About

The Los Angeles County Department of Mental Health (LACDMH) Roybal Family Mental Health Center has served East Los Angeles area families for over 25 years. The center is named after Edward R. Roybal, who helped Latinos organize politically on local and national levels. He was the first Latino elected to the Los Angeles City Council and served from 1949 to 1962. In 1963, he became the first elected Latino Congressperson since 1879, which he served until his retirement in 1993.

Roybal Family Mental Health Center was part of the Roybal Comprehensive Health Center until moving to its new location in the Centro Estrella building in 2002.

Services are provided by a trained, experienced, multi-disciplinary team that includes:

- Psychiatrists
- Psychologists
- Social Workers
- Registered Nurses
- Medical Case Workers
- Community Workers

Services Offered

- Assessment and evaluation
- Individual therapy
- Group therapy
- Family therapy
- Medication evaluation and management
- Full service partnership for young mothers (ages 16-25) and babies/toddlers.
