

DOCUMENTARY ON FOSTER CARE SYSTEM SHOWN ON MAY 21

May is Foster Care Awareness Month. The Los Angeles County Department of Mental Health, Child Welfare Division, in collaboration with the Department of Children and Family Services will be screening a feature documentary, "Place to Place", about America's foster care system.

This film will highlight six stories of young adults and their experience of aging out of the foster care system. Audience members will have an opportunity to participate in a panel discussion addressing the ongoing challenges faced by children in the foster care system.

This event is scheduled for Monday, May 21, 2012. If you would like to attend, please contact David Cantu at cwdtraining@dmh.lacounty.gov to reserve your space. The event will be hosted by Five Acres, located at 760 W. Mountain View St. in Altadena.

A meet and greet will begin at 6:30 and the screening will start promptly at 7:00PM. For more information, you may also call (213) 739-5458.
