Dear Friends,

LBHI is pleased to invite you to join us for the 18th annual Latino conference – that is correct 18th annual!!! The conference is themed “Advancing Latino Behavioral Health: From Margin to Mainstream” This is one of the nation’s premier Latino Behavioral Health gatherings with an expected attendance of 700+ family, providers, educators, and researchers from various states in the country, Puerto Rico and Argentina. We as a community can be proud of the quality and longevity of this outstanding event.

The conference theme accommodates the broad spectrum of subject matter addressed by the 60+ presenters. This event presents three plenary sessions, and 39 workshops. Issues addressed range from prevention to intervention in Substance Abuse, Mental Health and Health. All age groups across the life span are covered. LBHI looks forward to seeing you during the conference in September and thanks you for your consideration – mil gracias!!

Sinceramente,
Ambrose Rodriguez,
Director and Founder

Conference Goals

1. Disseminate cultural competence information on Latino Behavioral Health. This information is based in practice and science.
2. Promote the dialogue between consumers, family members and providers of service and researchers in Latino Behavioral Health.

2012 HONOREE

Fr. Estrada is a Roman Catholic priest and a member of the Claretian Missionary Order since 1973. He has spent over 30 years of youth advocacy and program management experience working with high risk youth in Los Angeles. He is Founder and Executive Director of Jovenes, Inc., a non-profit organization that serves homeless and at-risk immigrant and other disadvantaged youth. Founded in 1989, the group serves youth in Boyle Heights, Pico-Union/Westlake, Echo Park, South Central, East Los Angeles, Long Beach and Hollywood. Each year, Jovenes, Inc. provides hundreds of youth with transitional housing and shelter, as well as counseling, life-skills training, employment preparation, and opportunities to continue their education and advance in life. Jovenes, Inc. serves about 1,000 youth during the course of the entire year, with a population of 50 being served at any one time.

Fr. Estrada received a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of San Francisco and studied theological and pastoral studies at the Graduate School of Theology in Berkeley, California, the Mexican American Cultural Center in San Antonio, Texas, and the Fred C. Neiles School in Whittier, California.
