CalFresh Food benefits can now be used to purchase groceries ONLINE at select retailers

Beginning November 12, CalFresh recipients can use their EBT card to purchase groceries online at participating Albertsons, Safeway and Vons pick up locations.

CalFresh recipients can also use their EBT card to purchase groceries online for home delivery at Amazon and Walmart. You will be able to order food online that you would normally buy with your EBT card in-person and select home delivery*.

*CalFresh Food benefits cannot be used to cover the cost of delivery at this time. For more information visit EBT Online at https://www.cdss.ca.gov/ebtonline.

CalWORKs recipients will also be able to use their benefits to make food or other purchases at Walmart.
