Do You Need Help?
Rights for People with Disabilities

Not every disability is visible

Do you need help because of a disability?

The law protects people with physical, mental and developmental disabilities as well as others with serious health problems.

Do you have a disability that makes it hard for you to apply for benefits or meet program requirements? We can give you extra help. You do not need to give us your medical papers/proof of your condition.

We can help you with:

- Getting through the lines
- Reading our documents and forms
- Filling out our forms
- Getting documents we need
- Changes to program and work requirements
- Making appointments
- Other reasonable accommodations or modifications

Disabilities may include problems with:

- Walking, sitting or standing
- Reading, learning or understanding
- Speaking, hearing or seeing
- Being around crowds
- Memory loss
- Dealing with emotions
