NARRATIVE:

Benjamin Moreno is a documented gang member who has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 18. His convictions include grand theft auto, assault with a deadly weapon producing great bodily injury, robbery, prisoner manufacturing dangerous weapons, possession of controlled substance and felon in possession of a firearm. Moreno is currently wanted as a person of interest by the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department for an attempted murder case. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest being a 3 year term for assault with a deadly weapon. Moreno was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on October 25, 2011. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in February 2012 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Moreno qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for manufacturing a weapon is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, gang member status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
