NARRATIVE:

Jesse Buenrostro is a documented gang member and has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 22. His convictions include cases of possession of firearm by felon, domestic violence with injury, terrorist threats, manufacturing of controlled substances, battery, ammunition violation, receiving stolen property, possession of controlled substances, marijuana for sale, vandalism, identity theft, false statement to officer, perjury, multiple cases of vehicle theft, petty theft, fraudulent checks and possession of drug paraphernalia. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest being an 11 year term for manufacturing controlled substances. Buenrostro was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on July 7, 2019. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in July 2019 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Buenrostro qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for an ammunition violation is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, gang member status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
