NARRATIVE:

Luis Torres is registered sex offender who has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 23. His convictions include sexual battery, multiple cases of domestic violence with injury, ammunition violation, carrying a concealed weapon, DUI drug with priors, petty theft and possession of controlled substances. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest being a 16 month term for an ammunition violation. Torres was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on May 2 2017. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in August 2019 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Torres qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for an ammunition violation is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, sex offender status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
