NARRATIVE:

Deborah Jackson has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 21. Her convictions include arson, assault with a deadly weapon, forgery, vandalism, petty theft and multiple cases of possession of narcotic controlled substances. She has served multiple state prison terms, the longest being a 16 month term for arson. Jackson was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on September 15, 2014. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. She subsequently failed to report to her probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in March 2018 after she absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Jackson qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because her current commitment offense for arson is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. Her criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make her a most wanted. If you know her whereabouts please contact...
