NARRATIVE:

Bruce Lawson has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 19. His convictions include felon in possession of a firearm, multiple cases of burglary, domestic violence, grand theft, possession of cocaine base for sale, disobeying a court order, multiple cases of possession of marijuana for sale and resisting arrest. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest being a 3 year term for domestic violence. Lawson was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on February 18, 2018. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in December 2019 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Lawson qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for domestic violence is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
