NARRATIVE:

Usbaldo Carrillo is a documented gang member and has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 22. His convictions include 1st degree robbery, battery, possession of firearm by felon, damage in jail, possession of controlled substances for sale, multiple cases of possession of controlled substances, trespassing and failing to obey officer. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest being a 6 year term for possession of firearm by felon. Carrillo was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on September 5, 2015. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in November 2017 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Carrillo qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for possession of firearm by felon is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, gang member status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
