NARRATIVE:

Deaundry Caraway is a sex offender with an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 24. His convictions include aggravated sexual battery, attempted aggravated burglary, attempted theft, multiple cases of failing to register as a sex offender, multiple cases of possession of controlled substances and false identification to a peace officer. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest being a 28 month term for aggravated sexual battery. Caraway was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on December 02, 2018. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in December 2018 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Caraway qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for failing to register as a sex offender is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, sex offender status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
