NARRATIVE:

Joe Delamadrid has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 20. His convictions include carrying a loaded firearm, multiple cases of a evading peace officer, firearm access violation, carrying a loaded firearm, possession of controlled substance with a firearm, resisting an officer and multiple cases of possession of controlled substances. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest being a 3 year term for evading a peace officer. Delamadrid was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on February 27, 2016. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in June 2020 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Delamadrid qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for evading a peace officer is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal histor and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
