NARRATIVE:

Roy Sotelo is a sex offender with and extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 18. His convictions include sexual battery, multiple batteries, battery with injury, assault, failing to register as a sex offender, felon in possession of a firearm, burglary, terrorist threats, false ID to a peace officer, vandalism, resisting arrest, disorderly conduct and possession of controlled substance. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest being a 4 year term for terrorist threats with prior felony. Sotelo was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on June 18, 2015. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in January 2021 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Sotelo qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for failing to register as a sex offender is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, sex offender status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
