COVID-19 Weekly Update

May 7, 2021

Efforts to address the medically fragile population in detention facilities

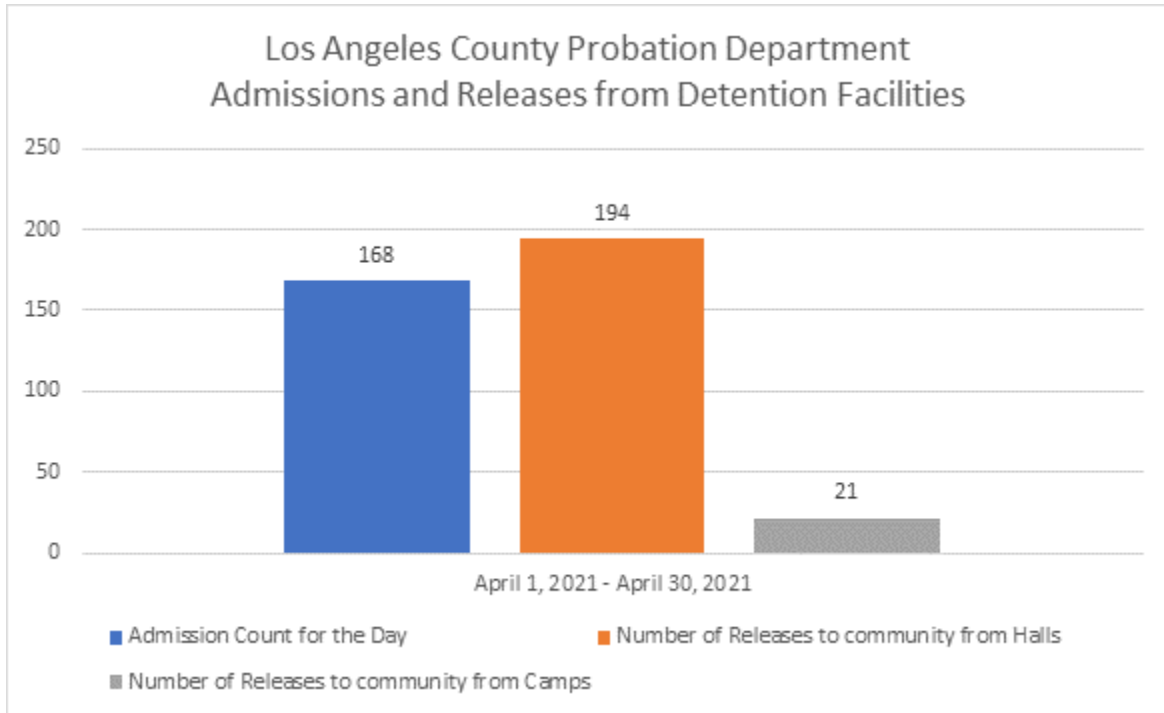

The Probation Department currently does not have any youth with compromised immune systems or other medical conditions placing them at higher risk for COVID-19 infection. As of May 6, 2021, Juvenile Court Health Services (JCHS) has identified 15 youth in care with underlying medical conditions which might exacerbate the impact of such infection. There are 11 youth in the juvenile halls and 4 in camp. If infection were to occur JCHS and the Probation Department will be working together on individualized plans to address their care.

Efforts to further reduce population in adult and juvenile detention facilities while balancing public safety

The Probation Department's juvenile detention population has declined during the COVID-19 pandemic. On March 2, 2020, the total juvenile detention population was 840.

On May 6, 2021, the total population was 399. The population for the two juvenile halls was 259 and the population for the five camps was 140.

The Probation Department continues to partner with CDCR to receive early releases from California prisons to AB109 supervision in the communities. All homeless adult clients are provided with housing referrals. In the month of April, the AB109 program received 34 early releases from CDCR and nine of them required referrals for housing.

Plans for quarantining and isolating youth in custody

The Probation Department continues to utilize the plans for quarantine and isolation in accordance with the Public Health Order to reduce the transmission of COVID-19. All isolations and quarantines in detention facilities continue to occur in partnership with JCHS personnel. All juvenile hall living units under quarantine have full programming. Youth under quarantine continue to have access to virtual visiting and an increase in telephone communication with families. The youth in quarantine continue to participate in programming with their living unit, with limits set to avoid interaction with the non-quarantined youth.
