

FAMILY, FRIENDS, AND COLLEAGUES CELEBRATE THE LIFE OF DSO MICHAEL WALL

On May 26th, 2021, family, friends, and Probation colleagues celebrated the life of Detention Services Officer Michael Wall. Held at Christ Second Baptist Church in Long Beach, CA, the beautifully orchestrated memorial paid homage to one of Los Angeles County Probation Department's officers. Several local and statewide agencies were represented, and there were approximately 300 attendees at the service. You could feel the overwhelming spirit of love, support, and respect for Officer Wall throughout the day. The Los Angeles County Fire Department and several California probation agencies were present including, Sacramento, San Bernardino, Ventura, and Kern Counties.

Sacramento and San Bernardino Probation Department's Color Guards stood watch over DSO Wall for the service duration and burial. During the service, Chief Dr. Adolfo Gonzales respectfully stood before DSO Wall, honored him with a final salute, knelt before the family, and presented them with an American flag. AFSCME Local 685 President Hans Liang gave special remarks on behalf of the Los Angeles County Probation Officer's Union. Additionally, Central Juvenile Hall Superintendent Alex Nieto shared stories and words of condolences from DSO Wall's CJH family. The celebration concluded with Probation's Special Enforcement Unit lining the streets and highways with a sea of white cars, rooftop lights shining, escorting DSO Wall to his final resting place. The Association of Orange County Deputy Sheriff Pipe Band filled the air with the sweet sounds of Amazing Grace as Officer Wall was laid to rest at Forest Lawn Cemetery in the beautiful city of Cypress, California.
