

CAMP ROCKEY YOUTH GET VIP EXPERIENCE AT LA RAMS TRAINING CAMP

EVENT HELD ON UC IRVINE CAMPUS

August 9th was a day to remember for Los Angeles County Probation Youth. The Los Angeles Rams NFL Organization partnered with LA County Probation Education Services and hosted Camp Rockey youth at their training camp on the beautiful college campus of UC Irvine. The youth received VIP treatment. Upon arrival, they were greeted by the enthusiastic sounds of stadium music, a blue and gold-themed activity area, and friendly Rams staff who invited them to indulge in a delicious complimentary lunch. They also received specialized Ram's lanyards and posters. One of the day's highlights was the sideline seating, where they enjoyed an up-close look at all the action. In preparation for their big upcoming game at the new state-of-the-art SoFi Stadium, the team ran several drills and concluded the afternoon with a lively scrimmage. "Today is good," expressed a youth. "I used to play Pop Warner football; now I want to play again."

"The Rams event was another example of introducing our young people to a new environment," shared Rahman Williams, Program Manager, Probation Education Services. "During practice, the youth were able to witness the hard work that goes into becoming a professional athlete. Hopefully, this was a key moment that our young people will remember for a long time."

The Ram's training camp was a fun-filled inspirational afternoon for the teens. They left the venue walking tall, sporting giant smiles, feeling excited and eager to share with their Camp Rocky friends all that they had experienced. "This was an opportunity for them to see what their life can be," said Deputy Probation Officer II Perez.

Thank you to the Los Angeles Rams NFL Organization for hosting a fantastic day. Because of collaborations such as these, our youth are inspired to strive for excellence and continue dreaming big dreams.
