He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest being a 10 year term for armed robbery. Murphy was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on October 20, 2021. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in November 2021 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Murphy qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for possess billy club weapon is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code.
