EMPLOYEE SPOTLIGHT

Riverview Area Office Staff

Thank you to the Riverview Area Office staff for hosting the Community Resource Fair in Arcadia on Friday, April 22nd. Probation clients, officers, and community residents attended and engaged with over thirty community-based organizations. Exhibitors included employment staffing companies, healthcare agencies, substance abuse and domestic violence organizations, and many more resources. Together we are rebuilding lives and positively impacting L.A. County communities!

MESSAGE FROM THE CHIEF

As you may be aware, our Department has been faced with a variety of challenges in recent months. One of those challenges is sustaining necessary staffing levels in our juvenile hall facility. The staffing shortages make it very difficult to support the programming required to serve our youth and create a safe and secure environment for our youth, staff and partners. We want to be successful and re-open Central Juvenile Hall in the very near future. (continue HERE)
