

What's Happening

Los Angeles County

@PROBATION

NATIONAL CRIME VICTIMS' RIGHTS WEEK

On April 25th, in honor of National Crime Victims' Rights week (April 24- 30th), two of the largest probation departments, Los Angeles County and Santa Clara County Probation Departments, joined crime victims at a rally and press conference at the Kenneth Hahn Hall of Administration. During the rally, they also announce a 3-point plan to strengthen and modernize probation services.

Rally Attendees

INVEST TEAM MEETS WITH WEST LA COLLEGE AND RISING SCHOLARS

INVEST, Rising Scholars representatives meet with President Limbaugh at West LA College

On Friday, April 29th, the INVEST team met with President Jim Limbaugh at West LA College, and the Rising Scholars representative, to learn more about training opportunities for clients in the surrounding areas that include South Los Angeles. Course offerings included Dental Assistant and Hygienist as well as Pharmaceutical Tech training, Aviation mechanics careers, and a training program for stage management jobs in the Entertainment Industry such as lighting, cameras, set design and others. ARC participants formerly incarcerated or on probation shared their experiences working on sets for films, television shows, and concerts.

EMPLOYEE SPOTLIGHT

DPO O'Banion talks to kids about a career with probation.

This week Deputy Probation Officers O'Banion and Munoz engaged with hundreds of college students and community members at Saddleback College's Career Fair. It was an exciting day for the Deputies as they educated attendees about the probation department, its services, and various career opportunities.

Probation Media

FOLLOW US @LACPROBATION ON FACEBOOK, TWITTER, AND INSTAGRAM

Have a story idea or images you'd like to share?

Please email us at: prob-news@probation.lacounty.gov

Find out more about other Probation Department news and stories in the April Probation Newsletter!