IN THE COMMUNITY: SANTA MONICA JOB AND RESOURCE FAIR

Director Estell with Motivational Speakers and Boxers Agnesa "Spitfire" Kirakosian and Adelaida "La Cobra" Ruiz

On May 19th, the Los Angeles County Probation Department hosted a "Santa Monica Community Job and Resource Fair" at Virginia Avenue Park. More than 45 community-based organizations engaged with community members sharing a multitude of resources.

Some of the day's highlights were the Los Angeles Food Bank donating more than 300 boxes of food to give away and the probation department's Mental Health Housing Court Program distributing clothing to community members in need.

It was a fun-filled educational day in the beautiful city of Santa Monica! Thank you to everyone who made this community event a success and all those who participated.
