DEPARTMENT HONORS DEPUTY PROBATION OFFICER II PAULA LIND

On Saturday, October 8th, family, friends, and colleagues celebrated the life of Deputy Probation Officer II Paula Lind. During the service, the Department's Honor Guard stood watch and conducted a flag-folding ceremony. Chief Gonzales and Chief Deputy Fletcher also presented the family with American flags.

On Thursday evening, October 6th, the Los Angeles County Probation Department honored DPO II Lind by hosting a candlelight vigil. More than two hundred of her colleagues, family, and loved ones filled the Probation Training Center amphitheater to celebrate her life.

Thank you for your service, DPO II Paula Lind. Your dedication and commitment to impacting lives and changing communities will never be forgotten.

ANTELOPE VALLEY HOSTS COMMUNITY RESOURCE FAIR

On October 5th, the Los Angeles County Probation Department hosted its Antelope Valley Community Resource Fair. Various Community-Based Organizations provided free resources, services, job opportunities, food, and clothing to those in need. Covid-19 vaccinations and boosters were also available upon request.

Thank you to the planning committee and everyone that attended this impactful community event
