PROBATION GIVES BACK TO THE COMMUNITY

On November 23rd, the Los Angeles County Probation Care Team participated in a Turkey giveaway at Hollenbeck Youth Center. More than 1000 youth and their families received a free turkey and basket of food to complete a hearty Thanksgiving dinner. Arnold Schwarzenegger and Tom Arnold also assisted in the giveaway.

Under the direction of DPO II Davenport, LA County Probation partnered with the Black Probation Officers Association and Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority to participate in Senator Steven Bradford's Drive-Through Food and Turkey Giveaway at El Camino College. Hundreds of families received food for their Thanksgiving holiday.

During this season of giving, the Centinela Area Office partnered with the Sam Simon Foundation and gave back. Deputies from the office assembled 125 grocery bags and distributed them to clients and community members, ensuring their fridges would be stocked for the holiday.

It is the season of giving and South-Central Area Office did just that. Clerical staff and DPOs in the Adult CORE, SIT, Ascot, Juvenile Sealing, Supervision, Investigation, CCTP, and Gang units donated turkeys and holiday favorites to 11 families.

On Nov. 23rd, the San Gabriel Valley (SGV) Area Office School Based Cluster One provided turkeys for four needy families and breakfast snacks to clients during Thanksgiving week.

Thank you to all who gave back to our communities during the Thanksgiving holidays. LA County Probation is proud to serve!
