

PROBATION NEWS

PROBATION GIVES BACK TO THE COMMUNITY

During the season of giving, Los Angeles County Probation has always come through to help bring food to community members who may be in need. This past Thanksgiving was no exception as numerous officers and staff joined with community organizations to share smiles, laughter, and some turkey and fixings on the side. Here are just a few of those who gave back to our communities during the Thanksgiving holidays.

On Nov. 22nd, the Centinela Area Office partnered with the Sam Simon Foundation. Deputies from the office's Camp Community Transition Program, AB-109, Gang, Educational Pathways, and Secure Youth Treatment Facility Units assembled 125 bags, filled them with groceries, and distributed them to clients and community members, ensuring their fridges would be stocked for the holiday.

Under the direction of DPO II Davenport, LA County Probation partnered with the Black Probation Officers Association and Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. and participated in Senator Steven Bradford's Drive-Through Food and Turkey Giveaway at El Camino College. Through the efforts of this collaboration hundreds of families received food for an entire Thanksgiving spread.

Continued on next page

The Centinela Area Office partnered with the Sam Simon Foundation

Inside this issue:

Meet the Equity Action Team

Youth Voter Registration Drive

Operation Blankets of Love Donate Training Scent Wheel to K-9 Unit

and more!

PROBATION GIVES BACK TO THE COMMUNITY

OFFICERS AND STAFF JOIN WITH COMMUNITY ORGANIZATIONS TO SHARE THE JOY OF THANKSGIVING

It is the season of giving, and South-Central Area Office did just that. Clerical staff and Deputy Probation Officers in the Adult CORE, SIT, Ascot, Juvenile Sealing, Supervision, Investigation, CCTP, Gang unit, Visto Volunteers, and college interns donated turkeys and holiday favorites to clients. Through their generous donations, 11 families, including more than 57 individuals, received extra-large Thanksgiving dinner baskets.

On Nov. 23rd, the San Gabriel Valley (SGV) Area Office School Based Cluster One provided turkeys for four needy families and breakfast snacks to clients during Thanksgiving week.

San Fernando Valley regional area office AB 109 also held a food drive, creating and delivering beautiful dinner baskets to clients in need.

The Los Angeles County Probation Department Care Team participated in a Turkey giveaway at Hollenbeck Youth Center. More than 1000 youth and their families received a free turkey and basket of food to complete a hearty Thanksgiving dinner. Actors Arnold Schwarzenegger and Tom Arnold also assisted in the giveaway.

Thank you to all who gave back to our communities during the Thanksgiving holidays. LA County Probation is proud to serve!

Probation News

LA County Probation partnered with the Black Probation Officers Association and Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority to participate in Senator Steven Bradford's Drive-Through Food and Turkey Giveaway at El Camino College

Turkey giveaway at Hollenbeck Youth Center

South-Central Area Office

Goodies from the San Fernando Valley regional area office AB 109 food drive