DEPARTMENT'S MENTORSHIP ACADEMY INAUGURAL CLASS HOLDS GRADUATION

On Thursday, March 2nd, the Los Angeles County Probation Department in partnership with the Black Probation Officers Association hosted a graduation for the Department's Mentorship Academy's inaugural class. The class consisted of 23 graduates. Inspirational words were shared by BPOA President Elloie, LA County Probation Department Chief Gonzales, and Senior Director Sanders. The keynote address was given by Professor/Credible Messenger Ralph Rocha.

Congratulations to the Mentorship Academy's inaugural class!

It was an afternoon filled with inspiration and motivation as the class plans to progress forward in their careers living out their motto of "Each one, teach one."
