

What's Happening

Los Angeles County

@PROBATION

PINK PATCH PROJECT DONATES $10,050 TO CITY OF HOPE

SDPO Barajas, SEIU Union 721 President Torres,
SDPO Roman, Raquel Sanchez, City of Hope
Coordinator of Annual Philanthropy, SDPO Perico

On Thursday, March 30th, the Los Angeles County Probation Department and Service Employees International Union 721 presented a $10,050.00 donation to the City of Hope.

The department raises funds annually to support the Pink Patch Project, the public awareness campaign that brings attention to the fight against breast cancer and to support breast cancer research. To date, the Department has donated over $40,000,00. Thank you to SDPO Roman and to all who participated in the Pink Patch Project!

EAST LA AREA OFFICE HOST JOB AND RESOURCE FAIR FOR OVER 100 PARTICIPANTS

Also on Thursday, the Los Angeles County Probation Department's East LA Area Office, INVEST, and the America's Job Center hosted a community resource fair. LA County Board of Supervisor Hilda Solis' office presented awards to the fair coordinators. Congratulations on a successful community event and thank you to the over 100 community members who attended.

(L to R) SDPO Medina, DPO Whaley-Westry, Asst to Hilda Solis Mario Betanco, BSR Saldana, Jessica Espinoza - AJCC Boyle Heights, and Monique Rodriguez from Boys and Girls Club

Later on Thursday, East LA INVEST DPO Logan and Business Services Representative Saldana also participated in a community event that was held at LA's Bishop Mora Salesian High School.

Among other opportunities, event attendees were offered a training by Public Health workers on how to apply Naloxone in case of an opioid overdose. The Probation Department has also started begun Naloxone application training for staff.

SCHOOL BASED CLUSTER THREE SPEAKS WITH OVER 400 YOUTH AT RESOURCE FAIR

SDPO Mendez and DPO II Doyle

Los Angeles County Probation Department's School-Based Cluster three, with the support of the Probation Training Center, participated in a multi-agency Career/Resource Fair. Over 40 community-based resource agencies, law enforcement agencies, fire department and all branches of the military were represented. Over four hundred youth visited the Probation Booth expressing interest in a career. Most questions included education level needed and difficulty of testing.

SDPO Mendez and DPO II Doyle assisted in answering questions and collaborating with other agencies to ensure the needs of the young people were being met.

PROBATION EVENT COMING THIS WEEK:

Pomona Valley/Riverview Area Office Community Resource Fair

Hosted by the Los Angeles County Probation Department

Wednesday, April 5, 2023 - 10AM - 3:00PM

Pomona Valley Area Office - 1660 W. Mission Blvd. Pomona, 91766 CLICK for more information!

Find out more about other Probation Department news and stories in the Feb/March Probation Newsletter!

Probation Media
FOLLOW US @LACPROBATION
ON FACEBOOK, TWITTER, AND INSTAGRAM

Have a story idea or images you'd like to share?

Please email us at:
prob-news@probation.lacounty.gov

