PROBATION EDUCATION SERVICES CULINARY EVENT

Our culinary students from camp Rockey went to Carnitas el Momo at 2411 Fairmount St in Los Angeles for a behind-the-scenes look at a restaurant. Students prepared food and took customer orders. Thanks to Bill Acosta for opening his doors and his heart for our students!

PASADENA JOB AND RESOURCE FAIR

On Wednesday, April 19th, the Los Angeles County Probation Department hosted its Pasadena Job and Resource Fair, a free community event with several Community-Based Organizations participating. Over 35 companies also attended, including Goodwill LA Northeast, Life Builders Inc., and Amazon. Chick-fil-A provided complimentary lunches for all attendees and conducted on-the-spot hiring. Kudos to the planning committee and thank you to all those that attended.

The Fair was also featured on ABC-7 CLICK HERE to watch the video!

MICHELLE GUYMON TO RETIRE

Michelle Guymon, currently the Director of the Child Trafficking Unit with Los Angeles County Probation Department, is retiring after 30 years with the department. She is the project manager for Los Angeles County's Law Enforcement First Responder Protocol for Commercially Sexually Exploited Children which was launched in August 2014, and which places a priority on treating children that are trafficked as victims rather than criminals. Her work for the County is that of an innovator and someone who truly loved the work they did. We wish her the very best in her retirement from the Probation department. Thank you, Michelle!
