

1	Can we amend the Resolution to add DYD? – Refer to Welfare and Institutions 749.22 & 1995 for membership requirements of JJCC and JJRGB respectively.
2	What is the purpose of the expansion? – This is not a legal question. Defer to the representative bringing the resolution.
3	Is it allowable? JJCC member mentioned they had never been on a committee where you can have someone else sit on a subcommittee that is not part of the committee. – Refer to Welfare and Institutions sections Welfare and Institutions 749.22 & 1995 for details regarding community membership requirements.
4	If it is allowable, why are we only allowing the Supervisorial Districts and not everyone else? The workload is the same for everyone. – This is not a legal question. Defer to the representative bringing the resolution.
5	If its allowable, why do we need a resolution? – This is not a legal question. Defer to the representative bringing the resolution.
6	We need to think about the implications, for all other subcommittees. The implication we could say is anybody can be on any subcommittee. – Every Brown Act Body is governed by different rules. This subcommittee is created by State law. Most subcommittees are not created by law, but instead by the committee itself.
7	Ok, so in theory, would it take no action if they were going to keep composition the same for now, or would the JJRBG pause until the new appointment were made? – The JJRGB would continue to meet as new members are appointed.
8	Would the JJRBG essentially be paused until all five offices appointed either the same person, or is going through some official process, or is it that if they want to replace their existing representative, with a different JJRBG representative, they would take a step to do so? No, the JJRGB would continue to meet.
9	It's just a person that would be sitting on JJRBG, is that correct? – This is not a legal question. Defer to the representative bringing the resolution.
10	So, basically, the five non-permanent members- that's basically what we're adding to the JJRBG, right? And they don't have a vote? – Refer to JJCC 2018 Organizational Rules.
11	What is the purpose? So the purpose is, because it's a lot of work? Is that the basic answer? – Defer to the representative bringing the resolution.
