BROTHERHOOD
Crusade
Sowing Seeds and Growing a Strong Community

Welcome!

Here is a little bit about us:

WHO WE ARE: The Los Angeles Brotherhood Crusade is a youth development nonprofit that seeks to ensure Boys and Young Men of Color succeed in school and in life by identifying and increasing educational, economic, social and leadership opportunities.

WHAT WE DO: Brotherhood Crusade mentors and engages youth in weekly programming and activities that improve their academic proficiency, socio-behavioral skills, economic growth and development, build their self-esteem and promote healthy lifestyles.

WHY: Brotherhood Crusade believes that effective youth development must be characterized by a caring adult mentor who addresses the academic, health, economic, safety and survival needs of youth, while helping youth self-actualize and address unresolved issues of stress. This can be described as the intersection of connection, hope, and intentionality.
